REFUSES MISTRIAL DEMAND

DR. C. G. JORDAN MAY GET POST IN FISHER'S CABINET

Lawrence County Man Is Leading In Race For Post

Indications Dr. Jordan Will Be Named State Secretary Of Agriculture

IS WELL FITTED FOR THIS SERVICE

Race For Appointment Is Reported As Narrowed Down To Two Men

According to reports going the rounds of state political circles at the present time, Dr. Charles G. Jordan, well known Lawrence county farmer and minister, is likely to be named as secretary of agriculture in the cabinet to be selected by Governor-elect John G. Fisher, to assume office in January.

Mr. Jordan served for two terms as a member of the state legislature, and has been actively interested in Republican party affairs for many years. He is likewise a "dirt farmer," and one who could most acceptably fill the office of secretary of the department of agriculture.

Jordan Has Edge

While reports are that many friends of the present secretary of agriculture, Frank P. Willits, are urging his retention, it is believed at the capital that the race for the appointment has narrowed down to Mr. Jordan and George McWilliams, of Ebensburg, who was once suggested to President Coolidge for the federal post as head of the department of agriculture.

There are a number of other prominent citizens who are being mentioned in connection with the post in the new administration cabinet, but it is believed that Dr. Jordan has the edge at the present time as the most likely to land the appointment.

Shenango House At Sharon Burns, Loss Is $20,000

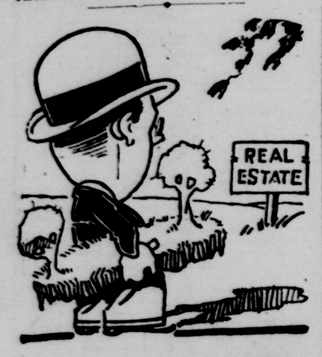

Jewish Women Delegates To Convention Forced To Flee Burning Structure

(International News Service)
SHARON, Pa., Dec. 1.—Damage estimated today at $20,000 resulted from a fire which swept the Shenango House, Sharon's largest hotel, and forced delegates to the annual conference of Jewish women meeting there to flee, last night.

Heavy loss of personal possessions was reported by many of the guests.

The fire originated in the attic and rapidly spread to the guest rooms.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Dec. 1.—Miss Charlotte Mills, 20-year-old daughter of the slain Mrs. Eleanor Mills who collapsed in a courtroom ante room late yesterday while waiting to be recalled as a witness in the Hall-Mills trial, was reported today as much improved. She is, however, suffering from a nervous condition and requires rest. Mill Mills had been in attendance in court daily since the trial began but about Thanksgiving day her nerves began to give away and since then she has been indisposed.

King Ferdinand Gives Reassuring Statement

Voices Opposition Of Return Of Prince Carol In Event Of His Death

Message Tends To Quiet Seething Unrest Among Population

(International News Service)
BUCHAREST, Dec. 1.—King Ferdinands message to parliament, published yesterday in which the king asserted he felt his strength returning and voiced strong opposition to the return of Prince Carol to Roumania, had a reassuring effect today on the population.

It is generally believed however that the king's message written in the form of a letter to Premier Averescu at the request of Former Premier Bratianu, expresses the opinions and wishes of Mr. Bratianue rather than those of King Ferdinand.

Dramatic Proclamation.

The rather dramatic proclamation of the king to the senate which declared his health was such that he anticipated continued activity for some time and which indicated his opposition to the return of Prince Carol has not been altogether re-assuring to the public.

The smoke-screen which has obscured the actual condition of the king has been broken down by the arrival here of scores of European corespondents and Foreign Minister Mitilineu received these correspondents in audience and made a public announcement that the king's health was such that he hoped to be upon the station platform to welcome Queen Marie upon her return home at the end of the week.

The foreign minister vigorously denied that there is "any kind of a crisis" in Roumania and said that he would suggest to the king that he receive the correspondents.

High School Orchestra Adds To Previous Laurels Under Irvine's Direcrection

There are undoubtedly many varied opinions in New Castle today concerning Captain Irving O'Hay, who spoke Tuesday night in the Scottish Rite cathedral under the auspices of the Quota club.

Some good souls there are no doubt who will criticize the captain for his rather startling freedom with words that are common to the lecture platform. Still others will undoubtedly criticize him for some of his views, but they will have to admit that he is one of the most unusual speakers who have ever been here. Any time a speaker can hold a New Castle crowd until 11:15 o'clock and get the applause and laugnter O'Hay did, he must have something.

Reminiscent Address.

His address might have been termed one of reminiscences for in a virile, entertaining way he recounted some of the experiences of his life. Roosevelt, London, O. Henry, Lee Christmas, Johnny Poe, Johnny O'Brien, Richard Harding Davis, these are some of the men with whom he soldiered. Soldiers of fortune most of them, purposeless men an efficiency expert might term them, but withal, men of romance and adventure, who took life as they found it and found the taking exciting.

O'Hay is Irish, which nobody can deny. One of those who fisted, hard hitting kind of Irishmen who

Ontario Voting On Wet And Dry Question Today

Canadians Flock To Polls To Cast Ballots In Hectic Campaign

FERGUSON SEEKS RETURN TO OFFICE

(International News Service)
OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 1.—Ontario, voting today for "yes" or "no" on a government control of liquor plan, expects to see the largest vote of any election in the history of the province rolled up.

The six weeks' campaign has been featured by the greatest display of bitterness shown in any election campaign in the province of Ontario in decades. The prohibitionists are counting on the women's vote and the rural element to bring them victory, which will mean a tightening up of the Ontario temperance act.

Under the leadership of Premier Howard Ferguson the conservative party is seeking a return to office on government control of the liquor problem.

"Barroom of U. S."

One of the feature battle crys of the "drys" throughout the campaign was that if Ontario goes "wet" it will be the "barroom for United States".

A high light of the campaign is the fact that at least three million United States dollars are tied up in real estate contracts bordering along the Ontario-United States frontier. These deals are all on options and have special clauses in them that they will be dropped unless the province votes "wet".

Police Called To Long Avenue To Investigate Peculiar Case

On answering a call to Addis and East Washington streets last night, Officers Dukes and Samuels, found Mrs. Mary Frankovich of 938 East Hazel street, in a highly nervous and excited state of mind as a result of her experience in being followed by a young man.

She explained that as she was walking along Long avenue in front of the drug store on that street at the end of Mill street, that this young man started to follow her. When she reached Arlington avenue on Long avenue, she started to run and the young man did likewise.

Finally she ran into a store from which point the police were called. The young man on seeing her enter the store walked on past.

On securing this information, the police and Mrs. Frankovich started out hunting him in the police car and they soon came upon a young man, who gave his name as Lawrence Mitchell and stated that he was 23 years of age. Mrs. Frankovich identified him as the man following her and he was taken back to Addis and East Washington streets where he was identified by several other women.

After being held over night, Mitchell was allowed to go this morning on his own recognizance, pending a further investigation by the police. Police say there have been other complaints of the same kind received from the same district recently.

Fear Coolidge Has Spoiled Chance For Party Senate Control

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—With Republican control of the seventieth congress trembling in the balance, a political faux pas by President Coolidge today threatened to disrupt the carefully nurtured peace negotiations between administration leaders and the insurgent bloc in the senate.

Just as peace apparently had about been restored among the Republicans in congress, it was learned, the president named Colonel C. F. Mudgett, a political foe of both Senator Lynn J. Frazier and Senator Gerald P. Nye, to the office of United States Marshal in North Dakota. The appointment was made at the solicitation, it was said, of former Governor L. B. Hanna, who opposed Nye in the recent primary and who has fought Frazier for years.

The president's action, it was learned, brought to a temporary halt the trend of peace in Republican ranks on Capitol Hill. Unless the break can be repaired, the Republicans will face the possibility not only of losing their paper control of the seventieth congress but perhaps of watching the Democrats organize the new senate with the resultant possession of all committee chairmanships.

Both Frazier and Nye have voiced strenuous opposition to Mudgett's appointment. Their friends have urged them to oppose confirmation of the appointment. If either should carry his fight to the extent of refusing to help the Republicans organize the new senate, the Democrats would win control.

The peace agreement, which hangs by a slender thread, included the restoration to Frazier of all the seniority rights he lost when expelled from the party 21 months ago. While Frazier had not formally accepted the offer, there was every indication he would vote with the Republicans on organization. The President's action meanwhile has placed the outcome in doubt.

Radio Committee Bans International Tests

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH.
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The silencing of American radio stations for international broadcasting was definitely banned today by the International Radio Week committee.

Opposition of both American and European broadcasters to remain silent on alternate nights, while millions of listeners hug loudspeakers or ear-phones to hear little but cat calls and other ether howls was responsible for the decision.

L. A. Nixon, secretary of the committee, declared the results of the 1926 international broadcast, held last January, "While interesting were not worth the loss of programs from American stations."

"Last January's test will be the last international broadcast sponsored by the committee," Nixon said.

Many reasons have been assaigned to the lack of results obtained from the January tests, which took place at a time when radio reception was unusually poor due to atmospheric conditions.

Even Secretary of Commerce Hoover, an ardent radio listener, equipped with a powerful set, reported little better luck than operators of crude home-made receivers.

Defense Tallies In Fall-Doheny Scandal Trial

Seventh Day Of Conspiracy Trial Finds Defense Retaliating

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Opening the seventh day of the conspiracy trial former secretary of interior Albert B. Fall and E. L. Doheny, oil magnate, Frank Hogan, chief defense counsel, through final cross-examination of a Government witness obtained as many points favorable to the defense as Owen Roberts, heading Federal counsel had adduced in the opposite direction yesterday.

The witness was E. C. Finney, assistant secretary of the interior. Through adroit questioning, Hogan conveyed to the jury the picture that Fall had left the whole matter of granting oil leases to Finney; H. Foster Bain, director of the Bureau of Mines; assistant secretary of the navy Theodore Roosevelt; Admiral J. R. Robison, and Secretary of the Navy Denby.

Previously, under direct examination, Roberts, by equally clever questioning, had made it appear that Fall was the guiding genius in the letting of the oil leases to Doheny, which the Government contends were tainted with fraud.

New Castle Making Arrangements For Big Reception To Santa

TO ARRIVE HERE ON DECEMBER 10

Thousands Of Spectators To Be In New Castle To Greet Santa

Rex Patch general chairman of the local committee in charge of making arrangements for the big welcoming parade for the visit of Santa Claus and his reindeer and Eskimo helpers, in this city on the date of December 10, announces that arrangements are coming along fine.

Muse To Aid.

Attorney George Muse has been selected as marshal for the parade which is to be part of the procession greeting Santa Claus and presenting him to the people of the city, while Charles G. Andrews has also accepted the appointment of an important role in the procession.

Harry Sechler has been named as assistant to Mr. Patch and is actively in charge of the work.

Many of the merchants have already agreed to share in the pageant event and many more are being added to the list which will make this event one in which the entire city is interested.

Santa on Way.

In another column of The News today is carried the intelligence that Santa Claus has started the trip from the North Pole and is making rapid progress over the ice towards Nome, Alaska, where he will officially start his trip towards New Castle on Friday. He stopped enroute to Nome to pick up the Eskimo family and is now in good shape to continue on to New Castle.

New Castle Boy Scouts will be in the parade pageant and it is indicated that the school children of the city will also be in line aong with other organizations. The brownies, and various other spectacles are being planned for and the indications are that December 10 presentation in New Castle is to eclipse anything ever dreamed of in this city heretofore in the way of a holiday spectacle.

Get ready to come to New Castle for that event.

Simpson's Demand For Mistrial Is Refused By Court

Charge Jurors Talk To Counsel, To Citizens And Some Were Asleep

Simpson Also Charges Jury Has Not Been Properly Guarded In Trial

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
COURT HOUSE, SOMERVILLE, N. J., Dec. 1.—The state's motion for a mistrial in the Hall-Mills case was denied by Judge Charles W. Parker this afternoon.

COURTHOUSE, SOMERVILLE, N. J., Dec. 1.—Alexander Simpson, special prosecutor, today made a motion for a mistrial in the Hall-Mills case, alleging that the jury is antagonistic to the state, that it is prejudiced and that it has a preconceived opinion.

"I move for a mistrial", said Simpson, "on the ground that the jury has a preconceived opinion, that it has not been properly guarded and that members of the jury have been asleep while the case was being tried."

The court took the prosecutor's motion for a mistrial under advisement.

Judge Parker announced that after he and Judge Cleary had reached their conclusions concerning the motion they would reach a decision "as to whether the defense might be heard on the motion".

Jury Is Excused

The motion was made immediately upon the opening of court at 10:22 a. m. Simpson asked the jury be excused. Judge Charles W. Parker, sitting with Judge Frank L. Cleary, granted the request. As the jury filed out Robert H. McCarter, chief counsel for the defense, rose and said that he had read in the papers of the plan of the prosecution and objected against Simpson being allowed to make a motion for a mistrial.

The court overruled McCarter.

"Your honor, I move for a mistrial in this case", said Simpson, "because of the failure of the bailiffs to properly guard the jury, and also because some of the jurors

Engineer Hurt, Fireman Averts Serious Wreck

Fireman On Freight Train Finds Engineer Unconscious At Throttle

SKULL FRACTURED EXAMINATION SHOWS

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 1.—Observing that Louis Duff, 37, of Rook Station, Pa., sat motionless at the throttle of his locomotive at a Pittsburgh and West Virginia freight train sped along at the rate of 50 miles an hour near here today, Earl Wilson, of Carnegie, the fireman, investigated and found Duff unconscious.

Wilson brought the train to a stop and had Duff rushed to a Pittsburgh hospital, where it was found he was suffering from a fractured skull.

Railroad men were at a loss to account for Duff's injuries. The train, a merchandise special, was brought to a stop at Bridgeville. Engineer Duff is believed to have suffered the injury in or near Sygan southwest of Bridgeville.

After a careful search of the road failed to reveal any projection which might have injured Duff, railroad detectives, under Chief W. C. Monaghan, were assigned to investigate the incident.

Fireman Wilson told of noticing Duff slumped over in the cab as the train raced through Sygan, but he gave the matter no serious attention until the train neared the Signa bridge at Bridgeville, traveling at high speed.

Wilson asked Duff for confirmation of signals, as is customary, and when the latter made no response, the fireman investigated and stopped the train. Duff was taken to the southside hospital.

have been asleep while this case has been going on, and also because two of the jurors were in conference with counsel for the defense without any guards, and also because one member of the jury called me a ——— ——— and little ——— ———."

There was a dramatic pause.

Asked to Explain

The court requested Simpson to explain what member of the jury he saw talking to the defense counsel.

"I saw juror No. 6, Tilman, in conference with McCarter and Tudor in front of the defense counsel table", said Simpson.

"Afterward I saw L. C. Barnhard talking to the defense counsel."

"When I saw juror No. 6 talking to the defense he was not under any guard or escort.

"It is also a fact that juror No. 5 was dozing off to sleep when Mrs. Jane Gibson was giving her testimony from a bed in this courtroom.

Reads Affidavits

Simpson began to read 12 affidavits in which charges of laxity and violation of their sworn duties were made.

One of these affidavits charged that Charlotte Mills, daughter of the slain choir singer, had seen, on November 13, juror No. 5 talking to Attorneys McCarter and Studer of the defense and that she also saw this same juror nodding several times.

An affidavit was read signed by Robert Connors, who is a night watchman for the Redfern Company of Somerville, which said:

"About 7:15 p. m., on Saturday, Nov. 13, 1926, I was walking along Main street, between Union and Davenport streets, Somerville, N. J., I saw Willia Force of Somerville, N. J., call one of the jurors on the Hall-Mills case, who was walking with a man I think is a constable. I saw them in conversation for about five minutes and they were still talking when I left. The man who I think is the constable stood about eight or nine feet away from the juror and William Force while they were talking."

Simpson then read an affidavit signed by Robert Lindval to the effect that this man saw juror No. 2 "nodding and apparently asleep".

Reiterates Charges

Simpson read affidavit after affidavit making the same charge. In several of the affidavits the witnesses stated that the jurors while eating in a restaurant on Main street were listening to audible comment on the Hall-Mills case made by the public. In court not far from Simpson were Gilbert Van Doren, owner of the Colonial Hotel, who made the first open charge against the jury. Van Doren several days ago wrote a letter to the court in which he said that the jurors left their doors wide open and that he frequently heard them openly discussing the case. He alleged that they were lax in other ways about the hotel and stated today that three members of the jury are prepared to back him up in his charges.

Van Doren said he was prepared to go on the witness stand and testify.

Talk to Outsiders

Simpson mentioned several instances where jurors were seen talking alone to outsiders.

The contention of the defense, it was learned, will be that the affidavits were taken in the last two days, yet pertain to incidents taking place some time ago. They will argue that the prosecution played this card only when it saw that the trial was going against the state.

But the weight of the affidavits did not escape the defense.

"Pretty bad", murmured Senator Case, aside to his co-workers.

"You're right, it's pretty bad", responded Simpson, who overheard Case's remarks.

All the evidence in the Hall-Mills case was in at 12:02 this afternoon, when the defense finished with its sur-rebuttal witness.

Immediately after the evidence was in Justice Parker ordered that the jury be excused until 1:30 this afternoon. Simpson then read the affidavit from Gilbert Van Dorn, owner of the Colonial Hotel, where the jury is quartered, to the effect that the jury had been openly discussing the case, that some members of the jury indicated they did not believe the testimony of Mrs. Jane Gibson, and that in Van Doren's opinion they had a preconceived opinion regarding the verdict.

Simpson spoke at length on his motion for a mistrial. "There will be more chance of a fair verdict before 12 trees than before these 12 men from Somerset county", said Simpson, "because in the course of time the trees would blosom forth, but the minds of the 12 men never will."

After Simpson concluded his appeal for a mistrial, Judge Parker turned to the defenses lawyers and told them there would be no time limitation placed on them in summing up their case.

Attorney McCarter of the defense replied that he would finish his summation today. Attorney Case, also of the defense, said he would finish in two hours tomorrow morning, "or perhaps a little longer".

Simpson took occasion to make a few remarks concerning the conduct of the trial. "There never was a homicide case in history that was conducted in the manner that this one was", he said, adding that "there had been snickering at evidence that had been presented".

The court then allowed the defense to speak against the motion of Simpson's for a mistrial.

Case declared that Van Doren was a "hickory nut" and an admitted eaves-dropper.

"It is not of prime importance that some of the jury in all probability closed their eyes, but rather did they hear the evidence", he said, "and I believe that they did".

The court then gave the luncheon recess, without having made any decision regarding the motion for a mistrial.

Slow Progress Being Made With Radio Measures

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1. — Slow progress is being made in ironing out the differences between the Dill and White radio bills, passed by the last congress.

The bills are now in conference, and it is hoped a compromise bill will be agreed upon for presentation during the first week of the new session.

The senate passed the Dill bill, which creates an independent commission with regulatory powers over radio transmission. The house passed the White bill, which reposes regulatory authority in the secretary of commerce.

Thus far the conflicting sides have not been able to agree on a compromise, although some progress has been made.

Bulging Freight Car Side-Swipes Train In Tunnel

Engineer On New York-St. Louis Train Averts Serious Disaster

(International News Service)

STEUBENVILLE, O., Dec. 1.—Quick work on the part of the engine crew of a Pennsylvania passenger train, enroute to New York from St. Louis, in bringing the train to a stop probably averted several fatalities when two cars were sideswiped by a freight train at Goulds tunnel, near here, officials said today.

Four passengers were cut by flying glass when the bulging freight car ripped away portions of the sides of two passenger coaches last night.

The coaches were crowded at the time of the accident, and had the engineer not brought this engine to a stop immediately upon hearing the impact, there would have been far more serious consequences, it was said.

The injured included H. J. Heintz, of Mechanicsburg, O., Joseph Creshowitz, Bergholtz, O., Rev. V. A. Wood, Delaware, O., and Harry Guswiler, of Cincinnati, all of whom were able to complete their journey after being given first aid treatment.

Kiwanians Hear Business Addresses

Today's meeting of the Kiwanis club was in the hands of the Business Standards committee and three speakers divided the subjects assigned.

H. Lee Marvin spoke on Clean Competition and Honest Labels on Merchandise. Charles W. Grafton spoke on Truth in Advertising and Elimination of Fraud and Charles W. Read spoke on Co-Operation Between Employer and Employe and Service rather than the Accumulation of Wealth.

In their addresses the speakers stressed the need of the Golden Rule in business, of the necessity of hewing to the line in the manner of conducting business and of the ethical side of business transactions.

Next week the club will elect its officers. At today's meeting the club discussed the football banquet to be held Friday night and promised a large attendance.

F J CHESTERMAN

Vice-President and General Manager

F. J. Chesterman, vice president and general manager of the Bell Telephone Company, was a visitor here today. He conferred with the local heads.

The question that is uppermost in Mr. Chesterman's mind is: "How can the Telephone Company anticipate and satisfy the individual subscriber's service requirements?" and he said that he gets many very helpful suggestions from his talks with the company's local representatives.

He was impressed with the telephone growth in New Castle, which was fully covered in a recent issue of The News. He thinks our city has a bright future.

Mr. Chesterman was accompanied by A. deB. Robins, assistant to the vice president and general manager. Mr. Robins' attentions are mostly directed to customer relations and personnel for the Bell Company in the entire western part of Pennsylvania.

LARGE CROWD AT CATHEDRAL HEARS CAPTAIN O'HAY

might trace their ancestry back to Brian Boru or The Red Rapriee. A tongue like a rapier and a heart as gentle as a June morning. Humorous, lovable, and manly, he has just enough daredevil in him to put across phrases and ideas with which you may not agree, but at which he will make you laugh. It probably is a good idea to have speakers here occasionally who differ from the run of mine lecturers, and O'Hay certainly does.

Wonderful Crowd.

The crowd which greeted him must have been an inspiration. A fair estimate would be 2,000, for the first floor was full and the first balcony all but full. The Quota club had sold their project well and the profits from the evening will help swell the fund that will remodel Crawford Oak Ridge, their working girls' club house on Atlantic avenue.

Preceding Captain O'Hay was a musical program that was in itself worth the price of admission. The senior high school orchestra opened with a group of three numbers and the youngsters were out to make a showing. They did, a splendid one and got a hand they well deserved. They were under the direction of LaVerne Irvine.

Sam Lewis, who was on the same Chautauqua course as Captain O'Hay for some time, gave the crowd one of his old time song presentations and it may have been that Sam wanted O'Hay to know that New Castle appreciated their own, for he sang in a manner that would have won any audience. And then as an encore upon the request of Captain O'Hay he sang "Mother Machree". Mr. Lewis was accompanied by Miss Jessie Mockel, who also accompanied the following artist, Miss Elberta Kagy.

Miss Kagy is a violinist, a talented one, but much as we may have liked any previous performance, that of last night transcended anything she has done previously.

I was a successful night for the Quota club. They brought an unusual speaker here, but then they are always doing something unusual. And doing it well.

Valuable Car Found By Police Officers

Officers Lynch and Longstreth this morning, found on Butler avenue, a coupe. It had apparently been abandoned during the night at the place found. The police believe that it is possible that the machine may have been stolen and and abandoned.

Investigation with regard to the license found on the car resulted in the discovery that the license had been issued to Albert T. Milan of 342 Pinehurst avenue, Dormont, Pittsburgh. The police have taken steps to notify the owner.

Auto Supply Co. Store Is Robbed

Place of business of Try's Auto Supply company, 308 East Washington street, was entered last night, sometime after the closing hour and articles to the value of at least $100 taken.

They found that entrance had been gained by sawing off a bar on the rear door. The articles taken included a number of tires, tubes and a battery.

Deaths Of The Day

Women Lose

less time, keep charm under trying hygienic conditions. New way provides true security—discards like tissue

OLD-TIME sanitary methods bring unhappy, fretful days. Now the insecurity of the hazardous "sanitary pads" has been ended.

You wear sheerest gowns, meet every and all social or business exactments in peace of mind . . . any time, any day.

It is called "KOTEX" . . . five times as absorbent as the ordinary cotton pad!

Thoroughly deodorizes . . . thus ending ALL fear of offending.

✓ Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

You ask for it without hesitancy simply by saying "KOTEX" at any drug or department store. Costs only a few cents. Proves old ways an unnecessary risk.

Unique Election Expense Account Filed In Capitol

Pumpkins, Nails and Even Shaving Bill Goes On Record Of Candidate

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1. — If James H. Kirby, independent Democratic candidate for the Senate from Illinois this year, had been elected he probably would have made congressional history in Washington.

Kirby filed with the Senate today one of the most unusual accounts of campaign expenditures and activities that has ever been spread on the records.

He frankly listed his occupation as "politics—state, national and international", and gave his campaign expenses as $472.39 1-2.

Included among the numerous items of campaign expenses were:

One can of pumpkin—25 cents.

Seven "two-fer" cigars—32 1-2 cents.

Two kegs of nails—$18.62.

Wear and tear on automobile—$200.

Hotel expenses, "including all tips"—$50.

Barber bills, April 13 to November 2—$3.10.

Kirby explained that when at home he always "shaved myself and cut my own hair".

There was no explanation of the pumpkin and nails.

Roadhouse Owners Nabbed In Raid

(International News Service)

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 1.—Disclosures which police said would result in a general cleanup of questionable resorts in Lackawanna county today followed a drive by state and county police which placed three men, one of them with extensive political connections, in jail here.

Tony Delfino, brother of Doxinick Delfino, who was executed for murder at Rockview penitentiary, Bellefonte, and Joseph Mack, who, police said was the brother of a local alderman, and also the brother of the head of a private detective agency, were held for sentence after admitting they operated resorts on the outskirts of Scranton.

Sam Damchak, who had previously testified as to conditions at one of the roadhouses, was given a 60-day sentence for threatening a State policeman.

Allegheny County Republicans File Expense Accounts

(International News Service)

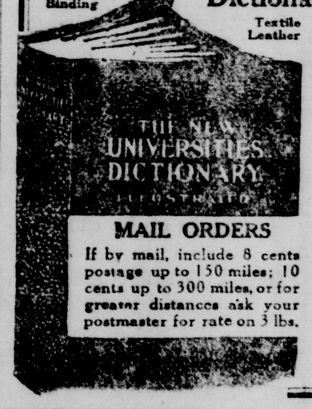

HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 1. — The Republican executive committee of Allegheny county received $84,495 and expended $83,479 in the fall campaign, according to a statement filed today with the state board of elections.

Contributors included: A. W. and R. B. Mellon, $10,000 each; W. L. Mellon, $7,500; S. L. Clause, $2,900; H. H. McClintock $2,500; C. D. Marshall, $2,500; Raymond Pitcairn and George Vang, $2,000 each; James Kissane, Theodore Pitcairn and Harold F. Pitcairn, each $1,500; Edward McCrady and J. B. Shea, $1,000 each. Other contributions were below $1,000.

They Taught Me Beauty

By Edna Wallace Hopper

French experts taught me beauty. And I now go to France every year to keep in intimate touch with the latest beauty discoveries. What I use now is the final result of a 40-year quest.

By these helps I became a famous beauty. By them I kept my youth. I appear before thousands daily on the stage looking like a girl of 19.

Now the best I found is at your call. All toilet counters supply them in the name of Edna Wallace Hopper. They are bringing countless girls and women new beauty and new youth. I urge you to try them at my cost and learn what they mean to you.

One is my White Youth Clay. That purges the skin of all that clogs and mars it, the causes of blackheads and blemishes. It combats all lines and wrinkles. It brings at once a youthful glow. Most women see, in 30 minutes, a delightful and amazing change.

One is my Youth Cream. That combines the best factors I found to foster, feed and preserve the skin. After one night's use you will never go without it.

Another is my Face Powder, the sort that stage stars use to get the ideal effects they demand.

The coupon will bring you all three in a package—enough for a test. My Beauty Book will come with it. Make these tests for your own sake. They will be a revelation.

For Trial Package A-36

Mail this coupon to Edna Wallace Hopper, 536 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, for a trial packet of my White Youth Clay, Youth Cream and Face Powder

SPECIAL—See Miss Hopper in person at Penn Theatre, New Castle, Dec. 2-3-4. Matinee for women only Friday, 11 o'clock.

Write for this Piano Floor Pattern free

Perchance your living room is small. Yet you are eager to own a Baldwin baby grand piano.

You have heard that the Baldwin baby grand requires very little more room than an upright piano. But you would like to know exactly how much more floor space it covers and to see at which of several angles it can be placed to best advantage.

To make it easy for you to do so, we have prepared, for free distribution, a quantity of paper patterns, identical in size and outline to the Baldwin baby grand piano. To obtain one of them you have only to telephone, write or call at our store.

With your floor pattern we will include, also free, a helpful booklet entitled "How to Know a Good Piano," enabling you to judge and appreciate the higher musical excellence of the Baldwin. Our convenient budget plan will also be fully explained upon request.

For your old piano, of any type, we make a generous allowance. Ask for particulars.

NO MILITARISM

ON THE subject of armaments President Coolidge knows exactly what he thinks and adheres to what he thinks. There is no confusion in his mind as to the proper relation between the military men and the civilian government. Mr. Coolidge has shown again and again that he is determined to maintain the civilian power as master of the military power.

In this field his practice has been consistent with his belief. Wherever militarist propaganda has shown its head he has hit it. He has been equally effective in his opposition to any and all attempts to stampede the country into violation of the spirit of the disarmament treaties. His attitude in all these matters has conformed to the soundest traditions of his office, and for that he deserves ungruding praise.

The firmness of his principles has been put to severe tests by the Mexican and Philippine situations. But even there it came through unscathed. He continues to subscribe to the conviction of the makers of the constitution that the military forces of the United States shall be for national defense only.

The American government has no business intruding in such controversies as Mexico's quarrel between state and church, except to uphold clear American rights by argument and to carry disputes over to some international tribunal if they can not be settled by compromise.

It has long been a source of no little satisfaction to the nonmilitarists of this country that the United States of all nations has been the least eager to fly at the throat of some other nation on the smallest provocation.

ALPHABET REVISION AND LITERARY ECONOMY

AN alphabet revision was proposed at the joint conference in this city of the English Language Congress and Council of Teachers of English says the Philadelphia Inquirer. In addition to simplified spelling, Dr. Godfrey Dewey of Harvard University favors a development of new symbols for sounds that have to double up in our present system of consonants and vowels. While the phonetic alphabet would contain more elements than the Phoenician heritage we now employ, he thinks efficiency would gain and space could be saved in the long run. He also wants a simple character for the article "the," which comprises seven per cent of the words in an average manuscript.

It is significant of the age that the reforms are proposed along mechanical lines. Little attention has apparently been paid to psychology. Habit and convention are strongly ingrained in us, as may be seen from the fact that the ampersand, the familiar device of cross-word puzzlers for our ordinary conjunction, makes no headway against the prejudices of elegance, though it was common in the writings of a century ago. Similarly the old Anglo-Saxon alphabet did have a character called thorn, now represented by "th." The "ye," which still in archaic books stands for "the," is a survival of thorn, giving us a word of two letter for that which is now represented by three. Had the English-speaking race ever been impressed by the economy of this system, it would have retained it. That the race did not augurs that we would hardly be inclined to accept other shortcuts of a similar kind.

If educators are serious in a belief that the great need of today is condensation—and certainly it is a pressing need—they might well try to teach literary habits of condensed expression. Pen strokes may be best saved by the use of fewer words, by the choice of phrases that pack the greatest amount of meaning. Good poetry does this very thing. Dryden, Pope and other Classicists were masters in the art of conciseness. A prose style that aimed at their directness and simplicity would be well worth cultivating today.

Dancing is declared to be beneficial to the health, and perhaps it is if a pedestrian can get a modern step down so that he can cross a street that way.

Oxford educators have reached the conclusion that longevity is not an achievement but an accident, but it will help some just the same to keep out of one.

Few of our larger public monuments have been erected to commemorate gentlemen who were in the habit of putting it off a couple of weeks to see how things shaped up.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

TRIAL

We are not promised easy roads to fare,
It was not said life should be struggle free.
Burdens there are for every man to bear,
Pain is the symbol of mortality.

Who suffers, lives! Who neither hopes nor fears
And is not conscious that his joys may cease
Has joined the dead of all the ancient years,
For in the grave is only perfect peace.

We grow by strife, by faith in doubtful days,
By courage in the presence of despair,
Those splendid virtues men are quick to praise
Are fashioned by the burdens which they bear.

The living suffer, and the wise men know
That out of struggle conquest is attained,
Faith holds them fast through all the storms which blow
And there's no loss but something else is gained.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 4:34. Sun rises tomorrow 7:06.

Most men are comfortable in the thought that their wives will never be robbed of jewels valued at five thousand dollars.

It looks as if an attempt was to be made to get the government to manufacture and distribute "medicinal whisky", whatever that is. We do not think the government should indulge in the booze business. No institution has ever gotten very far in the making or distributing of booze.

Out in Montana a Thanksgiving turkey had in its gizzard more gold in nugget form than the entire dinner for the family cost. Right here in New Castle we also know of a turk that had more money in it than the dinner of half a dozen families cost, and it was not in gold nuggets in its gizzard, either.

Tipping over the salt isn't so much of a sign that you will quarrel with your wife as receiving a phone call early in the evening that you are wanted at the office at once.

One hundred and ten thousand people attended a football game in Chicago last Saturday and also paid big money to get in. We are still slipping a bit in this country.

You never realize how many kinds of giggles there are until you ride on a Pullman with a flock of college girls.

The recipes for proper living are what make a fellow feel he doesn't care whether he does or not.

On the 10th of December an event will take place in New Castle the like of which has never been seen before. There will be eight or 10 reindeer with several esquimox parading right on Washington street. This is big town stuff and other cities will get it after New Castle gets through with it.

An errand is something a man's wife sends him on and which he knows full well he will not do.

There seems to be plenty of business for those who go after it. So many people have gotten used to waiting for business to bump them on the nose that they make no effort. The day is past when business is going to rush at you. Up and at it and you will win.

Birds of a feather flock with one another, and it seems to be that way with the fat women on a street car.

A man in Wheeling had never been away from home one night in the 17 years of his married life until he was called on a jury, and the the jury could not agree and was locked up all night. Some men don't need that good a reason to stay away from home all night.

It isn't your feet but your conscience that kicks the covers off the bed while you sleep.

Two divorced wives of Rudy Valentino are having a scrap about what one of them claims she is hearing Rudy say from the spirit land. The other one evidently thinks she is drinking—or something.

After a New Kensington, Pa., man had inserted an advertisement in a newspaper to the effect that he would not be responsible for any debts contracted by his wife, she came back with an ad. to the effect that he never did pay any of her bills and she had always paid her own and would continue to do so. Often when we see the kind of man who puts ads. like that in the paper and they often kick on the price, also, we do not blame women for leaving them and wonder why they ever married them. This shows we are not anxious for that kind of ads., also.

Unless a man is careful he's liable to come out on a stretcher, even when in a safety zone.

Scientists say there is nothing in the bunk about planting in the light and dark of the moon. They say it is all moonshine. We have always thought that and never pay any attention to signs of that kind.

The reason human nature seems to vary in different individuals is because some people let the things stick out that other people endeavor to hide.

PRETTY GOOD AUTHORITY

Dear Mr. Rentz:—

Anent your aversion to the abbreviation Xmas, which, by the way, most of us share with you, have you seen the comment of William Lyon Phelps, Yale professor of English? Says he: "Xmas is jarring as it would be to abbreviate Job: When the a. m. stars sang together."

ALICE M. STERLING.

And now we are told that good health comes in bottles.

We are still saying, don't say it "Xmas!"

Every member of the legislature in Pennsylvania likes to have a prominent and good seat in the house. Sometimes it is difficult for some members after they have attended a session or two to get within the railing at all, because their conduct has been so obnoxious.

SAVAGE WOMEN SHOW CLOTHES SENSE

Until recently the natives of the Kenya colony in Africa wore no clothes at all. The British government, which bosses Somaliland, now requires clothing be worn when a government officer is in the vicinity. Accordingly, each Kavarondo lady has obediently purchased herself a length of calico that is worn shawlwise, but only when there is an official around. These semi-savage African women can take a dozen yards of calico, knot it over one shoulder, and with a few deft turns and twists, stand arrayed in the most chic and becoming costume—not a pin or stitch in it, and yet a work of art.

That's the woman of the world over

New Orleans women are demanding equal barber shop rights with men. Which moves an old barber to say when this happens the last stronghold of man will have disappeared. When the saloon went we had the cigar store left, then the women began smoking cigarets. That left only the barber shop. Now they are after that. Still "trims" and "neck shaves" mean more business for the clippers and there's nothing sad about that for a barber.

The modern version is he who hesitates in traffic is bumped.

A California college is teaching its girl students how to handle firearms. Just another course in domestic science.

The grand sachem of Tammany hall denounces voting machines—that is the kind that records the wishes of the voters. Too honest and square for him we suppose. You can't stuff a voting machine and it records an honest count. No, they don't have them in Philadelphia, either.

To judge by the comment from the newspapers of the foreign nations we are entertaining not only Marie but the rest of the world.

It would be easy enough to do you Christmas shopping early but the trouble is to get your wherewithal on the same schedule.

One of the troubles of this country is that it wants to raise nothing but cotton and wear nothing but silk.

The first real touch of winter is the coal dealer's.

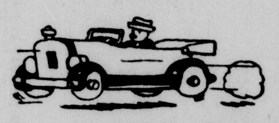

One thing that the discovery of the North Pole proved is that there is no one sitting on top of the world.

A girl who listened to a proposal in an automobile accepted it in the hospital.

A democratic manner is that easy nonchalance with which a 50-trunk personage shakes the hand of the one-trunk citizen.

Stores of this city are open for business six days a week and they do business every day. Why not advertise every day. Some stores try to do a week's business on one day's advertising. It can't be done. You've got to keep at advertising to get the cream of the trade. One big meal, though you ate 21 times as much as you do in one meal, wouldn't last you a week. You would be hungry before the day was over.

Football is now classed as big business. The season just ended saw receipts at college games mount to about $30,000,000 to say nothing of the millions that went in at the gates of high school games throughout the country. Instead of endowing a college these days all it need do is to get a first-class coach, two or three Red Granges, a stadium and in a few years the money will be on hand. The American people will pay for amusement when they won't give for educational purposes.

It's a funny world. The larger the car, the fewer members in the family that owns it.

Christmas is less than a month away and if you are ever going to buy early you must get busy soon. The stores are ready for you and they are telling you every day about it. The Christmas Savings Club checks will be mailed out next week early and there will be plenty of money for buying purposes. The Christmas spirit is best exemplified in buying and now is the time to start. Let everyone get busy and buy now.

In a gang fight in Chicago three of the gangsters were killed. If the gangs could be gotten together for one big battle with machine guns perhaps they might make the city safe for honest citizens.

Some people seem to regard conscience as that still, small voice that should remain still in order to permit them to remain comfortable.

Cincinnati police have been equipped with cameras to photograph the scene of crimes and the criminals if they happen to be there. From the evidence from New Jersey a flashlight of DeRusseys la'ne the night of the Hall-Mills murder would show a good many people there that afterwards would wish they hadn't.

TIMELY VIEWS ON WORLD TOPICS

MODERN MAN STILL BEHIND ANCIENT IN INTELLECTUAL POWER

By PROF. ROBERT A. MILLIKAN
Noted Physicist and Nobel Prize Winner, in a Recent Lecture

The intellectual power of modern man does not surpass, and perhaps does not equal, that of the Athenian and Alexandrian of 3,000 years ago.

Although discoveries in physics since 1900 have revolutionized the scientists' thinking, the more intimately one gets in touch with past civilizations the more he is struck by the similarity between the way people lived and talked 2,000 or 3,000 years ago and the way they live and talk today.

Such things as the beauty of women, the strength of men, the flavor of strawberries, the aroma of flowers, the love of friends, courtship, marriage and divorce, the race track, the wrestling and boxing match, all played almost exactly the same role in the lives of the people of ancient Rome as they do in the lives of the people of New Haven and New York.

Greek sculpture and Greek architecture we can but freely imitate today. In intellectual power we do not surpass, even if we equal, the Athenians or the Alexandrians.

In devotion to moral and spiritual ideals where can the twentieth century show anything finer than the death of Socrates? And was it not 2,000 years ago in Galilee that one lived of whom the whole thinking world still says: "Never man spake as this man?" Was the old cynic of Ecclesiastes right when he said: "Is there anything of which it may be said, 'See, this is new. It hath already been of old time which was before us'"?

If Galileo's own work were subtracted from modern civilization the whole of that civilization would collapse like a house of cards, and the world would revert to the condition of life prevailing in ancient times, not a single dynamical device for the utilization of power or the transformation of the energy stored up in nature can be designed today without the use of the mechanical laws discovered by Galileo and completely unknown to the ancient world.

But it was not merely the material side of human civilization which Galileo's work revolutionized. It changed man's whole conception of the universe, for out of his work came the indispensable idea which made possible, first, the discovery of the law of gravitation, and, second, the ultimate triumph of celestial mechanics. Also his work reshaped religion, for through it man began for the first time to know God, not a caprice and whim, such as were all the gods of the ancient world, but a God who works through law. It also changed man's conception of duty, the second element in religion, for it began to reveal a nature of orderliness, a nature which can be relied upon and a nature of unlimited hidden forces capable of being discovered and harnessed for the benefit of mankind.

In Day's News

G. Howard Ferguson, whose government is at stake in today's general election in Ontario, has attained a dominion-wide reputation during the several years that he has held the premiership of that province. Premier Ferguson is 56 years old and a lawyer by profession. After graduating from the high school in his native city of Kemptville he went to Toronto University to complete his studies. In 1894 he returned to Kemptville and began the practice of his chosen profession. His public career dates from 1905, in which year he was first elected to the Ontario legislature. In the present election Mr. Ferguson is appealing to the people on a policy of government control of liquor sales, similar to the system existing in Quebec and the four western provinces. At present Ontario is a "dry" province, with the sale of liquor banned except on prescription.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

A REMARKABLE PERSONALITY

One of the most remarkable personalities that the world has ever known was the dual personality known as Gilbert and Sullivan.

The names are inextricably blended together. Either one of them counts for nothing without the other.

A new book has just been issued in England, giving a critical estimate of this remarkable pair.

It speaks very highly of their product and has some opinions to express about the two personages.

Neither of them was particularly a success independent of the other.

Sullivan aspired to write wonderful music, but he never did anything apart from Gilbert that was very striking. He seemed to be of ordinary, melifluous tissue.

Neither did Gilbert excel apart from Sullivan. Few People remember his "Bab Ballads" nowadays, although at the time they were published they were supposed to be very clever. Time has set them down merely as pretty jingles.

The combination of Gilbert's poems and Sullivan's music, however, produced an exquisite flavor of humor found nowhere else. Time, the severest of critics, has passed upon it, and even today they are as popular perhaps as the latest production.

Gilbert's pawky humor seems to be admirably adapted to Sullivan's melodies, and some of the lines have entered Permanently into English speech.

The author of the book referred to considers Pooh-Bah as their greatest male character, and Katisha as the greatest female impersonation.

Older people will remember when at the time it was published "Pinafore" spread like wildfire throughout the world.

Critics found fault with it and pointed out the various weaknesses of Gilbert and Sullivan's other works, but critics also almost unanimously condemned "Able's Irish Rose," which at the present writing is in its fifth year in New York. Critics are often right, but they are sometimes wrong.

It is somewhat rare for humorous works to attain permanent popularity, but Gilbert and Sullivan's operettas has stood the test of time and they are still today remarkable examples of a certain delicate and subtle humor that is appreciated throughout the English-speaking world.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

STILL AT IT.

It must not be supposed that the former Kaiser of Germany was the only "Expansionist" in the old German Empire, much less must it be believed that because the Kaiser was banished, and the House of Hohenzollern displaced, that the President and the citizens of the so-called German Republic have ceased to be Expansionists. The citizens of the German Republic are the same people who were the subjects of the Kaiser. They have the same ambitions. The leaders of these people were the advisers of the Kaiser, for say what you will, the Kaiser did not embark upon the Great Adventure without the undivided support of his, particularly Prussian, advisers. The Kaiser was a very "heady" man, and considered himself the Great I AM, but he would not have gotten far had it not been for the almost universal ambition of his German subjects to displace England as a world power.

For years Germany has desired a wide strip of territory extending easterly from its Eastern Border clear to India. This strip of territory takes in among other European states, the state of Roumania, as well as the Balkan States. Naturally, the first political movements of Germany at the outset of the War was to try to force Roumania to side with Germany, and Roumania did not, principally because Roumania had a Queen, a granddaughter of Victoria of England, who believed in English ways, and English manners, English aims, and English ambitions. She believed that England was right, and whether or not King Ferdinand was originally of the same opinion, she swung Ferdinand into line, and Roumania cast its lot with the Allies.

Roumania suffered much during the War, in loss of wealth and loss of men. The Queen became a world heroine. She served her people afoot and on horseback, in the camps, and in the Nation's councils. She is a very likeable and lovable woman, according to the stories of all who know her. Yet during her American tour, she has constantly been harassed by what seems to be inspired propaganda.

Samuel Hill and Louis Fuller, staunch friends of the queen, were pictured, to say the least, as stumbling blocks in the queen's path. Samuel Hill is the son of James J. Hill, one of the greatest railroad builders in America. The son was for a long time the vice President of the Great Northern Railway, the intimate friend of King Albert of Belgium, as well as Queen Marie, and known to statesmen, men of affairs over this continent, over Europe, in China, in Japan, and around the world. Yet he is pictured in the Press as an eccentric millionaire in an empty museum on a hill beside the Pacific, where Queen Marie terminated her Western trip, in dedicating there a Roumanian room. The Press has also pictured that the King was dying and was asking the queen to shorten her trip and hasten home. Stories are printed of political schemes to bring her son Carol back into the line of succession, indeed, as one man has said, "Everything that can be worked into a sensational American Press without uncovering political aims and animus seems to have caught our otherwise intelligent publishers and editors."

Germany still wishes a route to India. Roumania is still a stumbling block. Roumania Redivivus is a strong up coming nation today in Europe. Queen Marie came to America, no matter what they say, to obtain the moral and financail support of American people. It would seem that the insidious propaganda was used in every way possible to give the world an impression that her visit was a great fizzle.

It would be well for the American people to remember that Germany has always been an international Mischief making Nation, and that its temporary conversion to a Republic has not changed the nature of the people in the least.

POEMS HOVE

BY CHARLES HANSON TOWNE

"Wages," by Alfred, Lord Tennyson

Tennyson's works are filled with the beauty and truth which attract the anthologist. He was a seer, no less than a poet. "Ulysses" is one of the finest things in our language, with its iron meter, its resounding blank verse. None of the Victorians did anything better. His fame is secure; his deathless harvest of song remains for those who will reap it. He cannot be too closely studied. One may grow rich, intellectually, by reading him again and again. Alfred Noyes is always saying, "If only we would get back to our Tennyson!"

Glory of warrior, glory of orator, glory of song,
Paid with a voice flying by to be lost on an endless sea—
Glory of Virtue, to fight, to struggle, to right the wrong—
Nay, but she aimed not at glory, no lover of glory she;
Give her the glory of going on, and still to be.

The wages of sin is death: if the wages of Virtue be dust,
Would she have heart to endure for the life of the worm and the fly?
She desires no isles of the blest, no quiet seats of the just,
To rest in a golden grove, or to bask in a summer sky;
Give her the wages of going on, and not to die.

Three Boys Are Blown To Bits In Explosion

Youngsters Find Explosives, Officials Believe; Charge Kills Three

SEARCH FOR PARTS OF DEAD YOUTHS

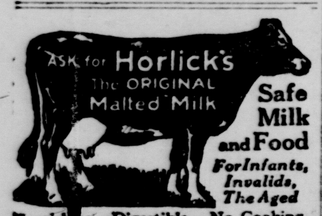

(International News Service)

PT. MARION, Pa., Dec. 1.—Blown to bits when dynamite they are believed to have found while playing near a mine at Poland, Pa., exploded, the remnants of the bodies of Donald Kennedy, 11, and Louis and Micheal Dudas, 12 and 10, were assembled today for burial.

It was while selling Christmas seals after school that the boys found what authorities believe was dynamite or possibly nitroglycerine.

The explosion occurred in a road near the Jones & Laughlin Maple Sterling Hill mine.

Only parts of the younger boys' bodies have been found and none of Louis Dudas' body was recovered, so great was the force of the explosion.

Pennsy Employe Retires Today From Railroad Service

Clemance A. Reges

Clemance A. Reges, track foreman, Wheatland, Pa., retires from active service today, having entered the service of the company as a trackman, at Sharon, Pa., on March 17, 1886.

On January 1, 1896, he was promoted to the position of track foreman, in which position he has been employed since. Mr. Reges was in charge of the track work during the construction of the Wheatland yard. He was born at Sheakleyville, Pa. His mother, Cornelia M. Reges, who was 90, August 12 last, yet resides at that place. He resides at that place. He has one daughter, Josie M. Barney, who lives with him.

Mr. Reges is part owner of a very finely equipped hunting and fishing camp in Forest county where he and Mrs. Reges are planning to spend a number of months each year. Near to this camp is a very good trout stream and Clem, for some time, has been accumulating the necessary paraphernalia which includes rifle, shot gun and the best of lines, hooks and poles with which to carry on his piscatorial activities.

It is the feeling of all employes who have been associated with Clem during his railroad career that they are better men on account of having come in touch with him. —The Pennsylvania News.

MONUMENT MARKING DRAKE OIL WELL IS DEFACED BY VANDALS

TITUSVILLE, Pa., Dec. 1.—Visitors of the Drake well have discovered that the monument erected to the memory of Colonel Edwin Drake discoverer of oil in Pennsylvania has been damaged by vandals The beautiful native boulder now covered by markings of various sorts many of them it is thought by thoughtless boys. Others it seems are the work of persons viciously inclined.

Some of the figures and initials are chisled into the rock. Vandals even climbed the screening over the tablet with the result that it has been broken away until the bronze tablet is exposed to attack. The monument was erected a number of years ago by the Canadohta chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persisent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

Lodi (O.) Mother Of Two Girls Expects To Aid Husband In Medical Career

WOOSTER, O., Dec. 1.—The old injunction that a wife should be a helpmate to her husband means more than keeping a house to Mrs. Joseph G. Whitacre of Lodi.

Mrs. Whitacre, wife of a Lodi physician and the mother of two daughters, eight and ten, is taking a "premedic" course at Wooster college, preparatory to entering medical school next year.

When she has earned her 'M. D.' she probably will have her name painted on the "shingle" in front of her husband's office.

Mrs. Whitacre, who is a sophomore, drives 20 miles between Lodi and Wooster daily in her car to attend classes.

Last winter during the heavy snows, she carried a shovel with her and often had to dig her way to school. She was thankful, she admitted, "that she didn't have any 7:30 classes."

Her course during the freshman year and during the current year included all the pre-medic" work she could cram into her day at school. Biology and anatomy especially took up much of her time.

She plans to enter the medical school at Western Reserve university next fall.

But Mrs. Whitacre's work does not stop at driving to school and studying. Having two growing daughters and a home to direct, she finds plenty to do in her "spare time".

A housekeeper does the work of maintaining the home but Mrs. Whitacre directs the activities and in addition gives piano lessons to both her daughters.

On Sunday she is organist in the church at Lodi and frequently is called upon as pianist for concert and other functions in the community.

Mrs. Whitacre likes to work—likes to be busy—but she admitted she looked forward with especially keen anticipation to the professional career for which she is working.

Heart Disease Is Fatal To Educator

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Dec. 1.—Prof. Daniel Williams, 45, superintendent of schools at Nanty Glo, Pa., was dead at his home here today of heart disease.

Death was sudden, the educator having apparently been in sound health a short time before. Mrs. Henrietta Bacher of Pittsburgh, a sister, survives.

Santa Makes Start Of Trip For His Adventure Southward

Encounters An Avalanche On The Way—North Wind Freezes Brooks And Streams So They Will Bear The Weight Of The Reindeer And Sleigh—Stops At Eskimo Village To Pick Up Tautuk, Wife And Children

The Garden of Happiness,
Top of the World,
North Pole.

My Dear Friends of New Castle:—

Out from the Top of The World go North Wind and Jack Frost today to prepare the way for my coming. Into the night, riding black sea-clouds, they scurry south to spread the dancing snow and wrap the hills and dales, the bare trees and the brown grasses in the plains with a mantle of royal ermine.

Snow! Blow! Chill! Thrill! That's the way they come; whistling round the roof, trees and swishing white feathers of frost into the quiet corners.

Jack Frost must festoon hundreds of icicles and North Wind must freeze the brooks and streams in order that they may bear the weight of the sleigh filled with drums, horns, dolls, steam engines and peppermint canes.

I am all ready now and start this very night for New Castle. As I speed along I shall hear the woodfolk below me whispering to themselves and telling of the coming of Christmas when all shall be gay and happy and joyous.

At the Top of The World mountains of ice move in the valleys toward the sea and blue pieces of ice as large as big office buildings break from the glaciers and plunge hundreds of feet into the green, green waters of a cold sea. Winds and currents will catch them and carry them south; birds shall rest on them and carry their food to their peaks and there feast and frolic.

Ready for the Exciting Journey.

As you will be waiting for me I must not loiter. On my way south I will pass the homes of the Polar bears, the ice floes with their sprawling families of seal and walrus and the black tundras of drifted snow where wild reindeer herds roam and seek the moss that means so much to them.

Now we are off. Dasher, Dancer, Prancer, Vixen, Donner and Blitzen are straining at their new harness. Sleigh bells are ringing and tinkling in the night. All is well and as the reindeer warm up, their breath in the cold air shows like a cold fog on the landscape.

How lonely this long trip is as the miles roll behind and nothing breaks the monotony of snow and ice! With me, of course, are the Brownies, but we are going so fast and they have to hang on so tight that they have not much chance to talk. As we speed into new scenes the clouds break, letting through the fairy light of the stars and a winter moon thin as a dime, and cut to a cycle of light against a sky more blue than a sunlit sea. Here we hit the lower slopes of a snow wrapped mountain, miles high; there is a straightening of the traces and the six reindeer start the hard pull. Up! Up! We go past yawning chasms and skirt the edges of mile-high precipices. Steady there Dancer! Slower there Prancer! A misstep now and sleigh and reindeer, toys and Brownie, Santa Claus and all will slip from the mountain ridge and roll into dark depths below. Whoa! Prancer, Whoa! Blitzen, one of the Brownies just lost his grip and falls into a snow drift. We pull him out and resume our journey. Up, up, we speed, traveling a path never before used. Now we approach the summit of the mountain and pause to rest before we tackle the down slope.

Santa Encounters a Snow Slide.

Far below us the snow crystals catch the lights of the skies and reflect in our eyes a million points of flame. All is quiet but occasionally our passing disturbs a bit of snow and starting to slide it gathers speed and volume as it slips toward the valley until the air is finally filled with a rushing, roaring noise. This, my dear children, is called an avalanche or a snow slide. Sometimes the snow, picking up more snow in its motion, carried thousands of tons of snow, rock and ice into the valleys. Instances have been known where avalanches have covered entire towns so deep that no one has ever been able to dig them out. At some places the mountain climbers do not even dare speak loud for fear of the vibration of their voices starting the rush of soft snow.

Now it is time to stop. I am coming to an Eskimo village and I have promised to stop and pick up Tautuk, his wife and children. We may stay here two or three days and in tomorrow's letter I will tell you about life among the Eskimos.

With lots of love,
SANTA CLAUS.

SHOCK KILLS LINEMAN

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Dec. 1.—Harold Eddington, 25, of Lima, an Ohio Power company lineman, was killed when a low voltage line he was stringing came in contact with the 33,000-volt transmisison line.

Characterization: The kind of a person whose life makes his New Year's resolutions.

DESPAIRED OF HELP FOR RHEUMATISM

Then found simple treatment that gave immediate relief

For years a prominent man of Townsend, Va., suffered the most torturing pain from rheumatism. When he lay down at night he could not sleep for the aching in joints and muscles. Then he began using Sloan's Liniment and it gave him relief at once.

"I want to say that Sloan's is the greatest rheumatism medicine that is on the market today. I tried every medicine that was recommended to me but Sloan's is the only one that did me any real good," he writes.

Sloan's gives real help because it doesn't just deaden the nerves. By stimulating the circulation, it helps the body to clear out the poisons that are causing the pain.

Just apply lightly without rubbing. Right away you feel a gentle glow of warmth and comfort, and in a short time the pain stops. Get a bottle today. All druggists—35 cents.

FEWER LICENSED DOGS IN COUNTY

Lawrence County Shows Smaller Number Of Licensed Dogs For Past Year

In a report from the Bureau of Animal Industry, State Department of Agriculture, it was found that Lawrence county was one of the few where the number of licensed dogs is fewer this year than they were in the year of 1925.

Taking the state as a whole, it was found that in 1925, there were 479,222 licensed dogs, while for the year just passing, there were 482,928. In Lawrence county there were 6,354 licensed dogs during the year of 1925, while for 1926 there are only 6,166.

Since January, 1922, the State dog law has been enforced by the Bureau of Animal Industry, this explains why the number of licensed dogs has increased throughout the state as a whole. Formerly the local officials were responsible for the law, and the increase in the number shows that it pays to have to have the law enforced by state officials.

The revenue going to the state from dog license fees is used in such a way as to benefit every citizen in the state. First the money is used to enforce the dog law and to pay for damages done by dogs to livestock and poultry. Second, it is used to pay farmers' for cattle condemned for tuberculosis and thus prevent the spread of this disease which is dangerous to both animals and human. Third, it maintains the various lines of work conducted by the Bureau of Animal Industry in the prevention and control of such animal diseases as tuberculosis, hog cholera, abortion, sheep and poultry diseases, glanders and rabies.

Rich Morgantown Man's Body Found

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Dec. 1.—The body of Dr. Walter South, wealthy business man, was recovered from the Monongahela river last night a short distance from the spot where his automobile went into the stream.

Dr. D. H. Courtney, South's business associate, today increased the reward of $100 offered for the recovery of the body to $500 at the suggestion of Miss Winifred South, sister of the dead man.

Dr. South was last seen early last Thursday morning, when he left the home of a friend at Evansdale, a suburb, half a mile from the Star City ferry, where the automobile plunged into the river.

ATWATER KENT RADIO

Receiving Sets for five, six or seven tubes, ONE Dial or three Dials. Mahogany or crystalline finished cabinet. Price range (less tubes and batteries but with battery cable attached) from $60 to $140. Radio Speakers from $16 to $23.

Reinald Werrenrath says:

"One reason I enjoy radio concerts so much is that they come to me through Atwater Kent instruments. They re-create the music so faithfully that none of the quality is lost. I feel as if the artists were playing and singing to me in my own living-room. It is all so real that when a number is ended I often find myself applauding."

For RADIO'S greatest thrill—try this!

Put the finger tips of one hand on the single dial of this receiving set. Start turning this ONE Dial. You hear the stock market report. A little more—the latest news. Keep turning. The stations flash in, one after another. Here is jazz, here a symphony. Now it's home decoration; next it's football scores.

Keep turning. The Governor is speaking—you can hear him breathe. Turn on. You're listening to a famous preacher, a great tenor.

It's a panorama of stations—a tour of all the cities within range in eighty seconds. And then when you know what's on the air, swing back to the program you like best and stay with it until you are willing to call it an evening.

Stop in at any Atwater Kent dealer's and see what you think.

Recovering Stolen Autos Is Unappreciated Task Police Officers Assert

Probably one of the most unappreciated efforts of a city police officer, is that of recovering stolen automobiles.

The average motorist, when his machine is stolen, thinks first of all of the police and off he hikes to the police station to tell of his loss and seek assistance in covering the territory in many directions as speedily as possible.

He tells the police that no matter what the cost, he will pay. Sometimes, he mentions that if the machine is recovered, that there will be a reward. This is a rare thing, however, and it is seldom that the police officer has any illusions on that score, because his past experience has made him skeptical.

It must be said for the benefit of the great army of motorists, that the majority of them do go so far as to say "Thank You," when the police turn up their missing machine, usually in good shape and easy of access.

Forget Courtesy

But there are still considerable numbers of them, that even forget that little matter of courtesy and drive away in their recovered machines without saying that much in appreciation.

Many of the motorists seem to have a propensity, at least in this district, to forget such little minor details as long distance telephone calls to other cities notifying the authorities of those cities of the loss of their machine. In fact it's quite often that they seem to resent the fact that they are asked to pay telephone tolls.

Then there is the matter of storage costs, which are small, when the police find a machine and find it necessary for safe guarding of the machine, to place the machine in a garage until the owner can be told and is able to get the machine. The garage owners report that it is more frequently the case, that the machine is taken out with the promise to pay the storage charges, which are never paid, than it is that the storage charges are paid.

Illustrates Attitude

There is a little story that illustrates the attitude of many motorists that is told by Day Sergeant Frank M. Jones. The officers had located the stolen machine on the outskirts of the city and the thief had evidently run it just as long as there was a drop of gasoline in the tank, and had then abandoned it.

The officers found it necessary to purchase a dollars worth of gasoline to get the car into the police station.

The owner, who lived outside the city and in another community of the county, was notified and hurried to the local station to get his machine.

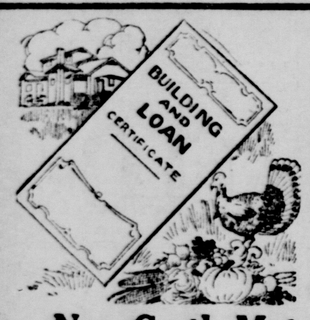

He was leaving the police station after the details concerning recovery had been attended to. He had been advised of the purchase of the gasoline, but was walking out, never saying a word, when Sergeant Jones called to him. "What about the money for the gasoline?"

The man stopped apparently stunned by the request. Then he said, "Do I have to pay that?" "You most certainly do" replied Sergeant Jones.

The small sum was paid in a grudging manner and the owner walked out without even saying thank you.

So Mr. Motorist, when your machine is stolen and you hurry to the police station to report your loss, remember that your best friend in a case like that, is the policeman and when it is found and again in your possession, remember to be just as anxious to express your appreciation as you were to recover it.

The police officer is human and he likes you to show in spoken words, the fact that you appreciate what he has done for you. Its true, he is working for your protection as well as that of every resident of the city and the stranger within our gates, but a little courtesy is surely coming to him, when he does his work and prevents your loss from being greater than at first expected when your car disappears.

Does Nickel Fare Entitle Him To View With Ride?

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Branson C. Stimmel, an insurance broker, is questing through the courts to find out just how much he is entitled to when he gives his nickel to a street car conductor.

The street car people believe his reasonable expectations should include no more than a street car ride. Stimmel thinks he ought to get a view as well.

Entering a 42nd street crosstown car recently, Stimmel found himself in a seat beside a window on which was pasted a program of a radio station operated by the transit company. He tore it down.

An inspector on the car protested but declined Stimmel's invitation to arrest him. Stimmel then wrote the street car company, repeating his invitation. That time it was accepted.

Today he was found guilty of destroying property and December 3 was set for date of sentence. Stimmel said he would carry the case to the supreme court if necessary.

Coal Loadings Show Decline

(International News Service)

UNIONTOWN, Pa. Dec. 1.—Coal loadings in the southwestern Pennsylvania district as reported by the Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio, and Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroads today, declined last week 186 cars below the figure for the preceding week.

Coke loadings increased 67 cars despite the holiday layoff. Several coal and coke companies were expected to cut down production this week as much coal is standing on mine sidings.

Rumors of a cut in wages, which were raised a month ago when there was an unprecedented demand because of the British coal strike, were rife here, several small companies having already announced a cut.

Child Gets Sick Cross, Feverish if Constipated

Look at tongue! Then give fruity laxative for stomach, liver, bowels

"California Fig Syrup" can't harm children and they love it

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign the little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Fig Syrup" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious, "fruity laxative", and it never fails to effect a good "inside cleansing". Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Fig Syrup", then see that it is made by "The California Fig Syrup Company".

FARMFACTS

TIMELY REMINDERS From The Pennsylvania State College

Prevent Seed Corn Freezing—Many farmers in Pennsylvania already have suffered a distinct loss in seed corn through freezing, according to reports received at the Pennsylvania State college. Only careful storing will prevent others losing their seed corn supply or at least having the viability of the seed considerably reduced by frost damage. A little heat in the seed room will help save the seed which will be so valuable next spring.

Feeding Syrup to Bees—Feeding sugar syrup to bees may be done by using a friction-top pail. Make 30 nail holes in the lid, put syrup in the pail and turn upside down on the frames or over the opening of the inner cover. The bees will draw the syrup through the nail holes and store it slowly in the combs.

Records Tell Story—Bookkeeping helps grow hogs profitably it has been found by Pennsylvania farmers. Records tell the story of costs, grains, profits or losses. If some other part of the farm operations is supporting the hog-raising end, or vice versa, then you want to know about it.

Weigh Each Cow's Milk—The winter months provide a good time for a careful study of the dairy herd. Weigh the milk from each cow at regular intervals. Probably you are keeping some cows that do not pay their way. Weighing the milk exposes them. Weed them out.

Do Not Push Hens Too Much—Poultrymen who are not satisfied with a reasonable increase in production by the use of lights and who push their hens much over 50 per cent production for any length of time are borrowing trouble, as the birds are almost certain to molt in the spring, thereby causing a loss instead of a profit from the use of lights.

DOCTOR WOULD FREE WOMAN DRIVER; "ONE YEAR" SAYS COURT

AIX LA CHAPELLE, Dec. 1.—Testifying as an expert witness in criminal court, Dr. Alexander Crappell, prominent psychiatrist, said Frau Elfrieda Roehn, 38 years old, a successful business woman, could not be held responsible for running down and killing two persons with her automobile "because she was a woman."

"Women are so keyed that they cannot react quickly and rationally in times of danger," he said.

College Classes Are Resumed At New Wilmington

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Dec. 1—Thanksgiving recess at Westminster college with its hurried trip home and just as hurried a return with some of mother's cooking in between, came to an end with the tolling of the old college bell at 7 a. m. Tuesday and the subsequent resumption of classes at 8:15. The vacation started at 4 p. m., last Wednesday. The next break in the college calendar comes December 17 when the students return to their homes to spend the Christmas holidays. They do not return until January 3.

During the pase recess Dr. W. Charles Wallace president of the college, was a visitor to Philadelphia. While in the city of Brotherly Love Dr. Wallace was the guest of his son Charles Wallace who is a law student at the University of Pennsylvania.

Sunday morning Dr. Wallace occupied the pulpit of the Germantown United Presbyterian church.

Many Hear Dr. Petty At Baptist Church

Popular Lecturer Drives Truths Home In Stirring Address

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Dec. 1.—The Baptist church auditorium, filled to capacity greeted Dr. C. Wallace Petty when he lectured here last evening on "The Fine Art of Trapping the Bluebird."

Dr. Petty came here from spending a week as chaplain of the University of Chicago. He has a particular appeal to young people, for as he stated, he is in the heart of the university district in his pastorate of the First Baptist church of Pittsburgh.

According to Dr. Petty, the main thing in life is a sense of humor. Without it one is lost utterly. He draws a fine distinction between happiness and pleasure as "Happiness is finding our niche in the world and filling it—Pleasure is the over-emphasis of a single instinct to the explanation of all others." One of his main theories is that it isn't what you have—but what you do.

At the close of the address, which was preceded by fine selections from the Baptist orchestra, people came away feeling inspired and glad that they took the time off, in this busy pre-holiday season, to hear Dr. Petty.

Football Squad Given Banquet

Ellwood High School Boys Are Guests Of Mothers At Banquet

COACH McMILLEN MAKES ADDRESS

Hubbard, Geneva End, Is Also One Of Men To Address Boys

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 1.—To jazzy tunes from the high school orchestra 'neath a fluttering canopy of blue and white, with pretty waitresses flitting about also decked in the same colors, the annual football banquet came off with a bang at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening.

The event was the long heralded football banquet given by the mothers of the members of the entire squad, an honor paid the boys each year, and a finer chicken dinner the writer never tasted.

Prof. Ray Smith, superintendent of the local schools, acted as toastmaster, performing his duties very efficiently.

The first speaker on the program was "Cal" Hubbard, famous end on the Geneva team. He stressed the fact that all the players on the team are important, from the water boy up, and was given a rousing cheer when he concluded.

Coach Bo McMillin of Geneva was then introduced amid loud applause. In his attractive southern drawl, he drove home to the boys the supreme importance of a mother in the home and that the fact of his losing his own mother while still a student in college has made him appreciate a mother's love more than ever. This introduction of a serious note into the heretofore hilarious assemblage was just what was needed to put the boys into a receptive mood for the coach's attack on school marks. In strong words he sounded a warning to them to keep up their marks, "for," he continued, "football can do a world of good for a fellow—providing he can realize it as a secondary thing." He further stated that a football player must be a big man mentally as well as physically, and that the game develops determination, self control, sportsmanship and self-sacrifice, and concluded his blunt talk with the remark that "football is one of the finest character-builders we have in the high schools and colleges today." An enthusiastic and noisy storm of appreciation accompanied him to his chair.

The next speaker was one well known to the boys—Sam Kramer, former assistant coach of the local team and now assistant coach of the Beaver Falls high school team. He complimented the boys on their moulding of a successful team out of left-over material from last year's phenomenal season. He also stated that he was proud of the way they held down the score with New Castle and their victory over Monaca. (Loud cheers.)

Nick Schuler was then introduced and spoke in a humorous vein, the most important remark of his being an invitation for the entire party to be his guests at the theatre for the balance of the evening.

The mothers of the team members and the pretty waitresses came in for their share of the glory with mighty cheers led by Cheer Leader Harold Garwig, after which the guests dispersed, full but happy.

Moderns Go To Valley For Bridge Party

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Dec. 1.—Members of the Modern Bridge club were the guests of Miss Anne Rosenkeimer at her home in Beaver Falls, Tuesday evening at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the club.

All the members were present, and high score favors were captured by: Miss Helen Zeigler, Miss Claire Smith and Miss Mary Sakrada. Special guests of the evening were: Miss Agnes Schelley and Miss Irene Butler of New Brighton. The next meeting of the club will take place at the home of Miss Mary Sakrada in Beaver Falls, at which time it will be in the nature of a Christmas party.

Modern Bridge club members are: The Misses Helen Zeigler, Tess Miller, Velma Aiken, Mary Elizabeth Turner, Mary Sakrada, Ann Rosenkeimer, Claire Smith, Helen Seibendoffer and Agnes Weiscoph.

Methodists Turn Away Crowds At Supper

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Dec. 1.—Such is the reputation built up by the culinary experts of the Methodist Episcopal church, they turned away about one hundred people last night at the chicken supper held as a benefit for the building fund. Those who purchased tickets and arrived too late to be served may have their money refunded by applying to Mrs. C. V. Patton. The Ladies Aid Bazaar, held in connection with the supper sold many lovely hand-made articles for Christmas.

MATRON TO ENTERTAIN WEDNESDAY EVENING

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Dec. 1.—Mrs. W. R. Thompson of Fountain avenue will give a dinner party on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. George Dambach and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Butler will be present. This is in the nature of a belated Thanksgiving feast as the hostess was out of town during the holiday season.

Shelby Band Gives Extensive Program

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Dec. 1.—The concert given by the Shelby band in the Shelby Auditorium last evening was well attended and a fine concert was enjoyed.

The proceeds will be devoted toward purchasing new uniforms for members of the band.

The following program was presented. "Philadelphia Sesqui-Centennial March," Harry C. Their; "Raymond Overture," Amb Thomas; "Bye Bye Blackbird," solo by Eugene Meddicker; "Rossini Stabut Mater," cornet solo by M. Martino; "Daughter of the Regiment," Opera from Donizesttis; "Colombus," saxophone solo, Miss Ruth Miller; Solo, "Somebody's Lonely," by Eugene Meddicker; "Princess of India Overture," by King; violin solo by Vincent Logan, accompanied by Miss Ruth Miller; Solo by Mrs. Laurence M. Johnston; "Panorama Overture," Barnhouse; "Longing for Home," clarinet solo, S. Decaria; "North Pole," symphonic march; Solo, "I'm Lonely Without You" by Eugene Meddicker; "Ballet Egyptian" Ballad-Luicini closing with "Pilgrim Chorus," Tannhauser, Wagner.

Prof. Dickason Brings Message

Brings Warning To Young People Of America From Prison Convict

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Dec. 1.—A large attendance greeted Prof. J. H. Dickason, who is affiliated with the Department of Moral Welfare of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian church of America, to hear his lecture on "The Message from No. 15,542." Prof. Dickason was connected with Wooster College for a number of years, and has many local friends here who attended Wooster during his service.

His "Message" was an actual one sent from a convict who had been in prison for a long time. Prof. Dickason received a letter from this convict and visited him. As a result he sounds the note of warning uttered by that prisoner on his lecture tour all through America. He presented further unseen appalling conditions that face the every-day life of young people and quoted statistics to the effect that 3,000 of the young people of America are behind the bars.

Knit-A-Bit Club Enjoys Meeting

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Dec. 1.—The members of the Knit-a-Bit club enjoyed meeting last evening with Mrs. O. E. Bartel as hostess at her home on Spring avenue.

The evening passed socially with plans made for the Christmas party to be given December 17 at the home of Mrs. Frank McKim of Park avenue, terminating with a dainty lunch served by the hostess who was assisted by her daughter Miss Janice.

Members of the club are: Mesdames Carl Bauder, John Cobbler, Harry Parthemore, Robert Snedden, John Brennamen, Frank McKim, Ed. Poole, John Evans and O. E. Bartel.

Ewing Park Card Party A Success

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Dec. 1.—The Benefit Bridge and Five Hundred party given last night in the Ewing Park school by the members of the Ewing Park Parents and Teachers association was an unqualified success from all angles.

Twenty tables of Bridge and Five Hundred were in play with Bridge favors awarded to Mrs. Eugene Swartz, Mrs. Oliver Bauer, H. E. King and P. J. Boyle. Five Hundred awards were captured by Mrs. P. J. Boyle, Mrs. Tinker, William Strause and Albert Jenkins.

A pleasant evening concluded with the serving of a delectable lunch by the committee in charge headed by Mrs. P. J. Boyle.

Mrs. Frank Gardner Is Hostess To Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 1.—Mrs. Frank Gardner charmingly entertained the members of the 1926 Bridge Club at her home last evening on Spring avenue. The evening hours passed pleasantly with two tables in play, high score favors going to Mrs. Harry Atkinson and Mrs. William Thomas.

In conclusion Mrs. Gardner served a dainty lunch. Special guest of the affair was Mrs. Hazel Knauff. Club members are: Mesdames Lee Sekylski, E. S. Dunbar, Tony Turner, Frank Gardner, C. W. Martin, Thomas Faust, Harry Atkinson and Audley Cunningham.

Bernice Wilson Troop Gives Prize Tuesday

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Dec. 1.—The regular weekly meeting of the Bernice Wilson girl scout troop took place last night in the Hartman school. Miss Coral Swartz drew the lucky number for the prize which is given each week to stimulate attendance.

Following the regular routine, a social interval was enjoyed after which the meeting disbanded until next Tuesday evening.

Large Number Of Ladies At Meet

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 1. — Two buses filled with members of the Ladies Loyal Orange lodge motored to New Castle Tuesday evening where the first and second degree teams conferred like degrees on a large number of candidates of the Pride of New Castle Lodge, No. 129. Viewing the ceremonies were members from other lodges of New Castle and visitors from Sharon.

Concluding the visit was a delicious lunch served by the committee.

Committee To Make Canvass In City

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Dec. 1.—At a meeting of the members of a committee of merchants of the Chamber of Commerce held Tuesday at the chamber rooms, it was decided to make a canvas of merchants here to ascertain their opinions on the methods of decorating the town for the Christmas holidays. Several fine ideas have been brought forward, and whatever the final decision, the town will probably be all "lit up."

In Twenty-Four Hours Relieves Piercing Pains of Neuritis

Pains Cease and You Get Rest and Comfort

When you've tried everything you can think of and nothing seems to even relieve those piercing, agonizing pains, just go to McKee's Kut Rate Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc. or some other good druggist and get a bottle of Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2. Be sure you get No. 2 which comes in capsule form.

Take these little dark green capsules as directed and notice how in about 24 hours they have considerably reduced, if not entirely banished, those persistent, nerve racking pains that have caused you many sleepless nights. A few more doses and the pains have left you forever.

While this particular formula was compounded for the purpose of conquering painful, Gouty conditions and what is known as Rheumatoid Arthritis—a knotty, painful swelling of the joints—it has proven wonderfully successful in all forms of Neuritis and Sciatic Nerve Pains.

You needn't be afraid of its containing dope of any kind—it doesn't. Such things are only makeshifts and can only at the best give temporary relief.

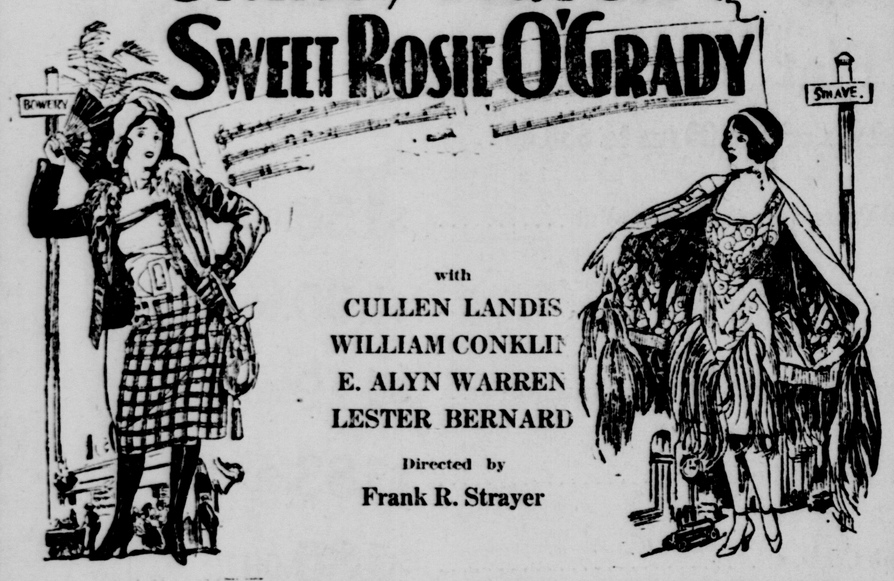

Be sure you've got Neurities and then get Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2. McKee's Kut Rate Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc. can supply you.

Make Suggestions For Decorating In Sections Of City

Idea Is Also Given That Small Community Trees Should Be Erected In Different Centres Of The City

From a number of sources the suggestion has been made that the holiday and Christmas spirit can be augmented in this city if decorations are placed on trees and shrubbery around homes in various parts of the city, especially where there is a tree that is of the fir or evergreen variety.

For several seasons past in a few instances out-of-doors decorations have been seen, and trees have been trimmed and lighted with colored lamps. There are many places about the city where such a plan could be followed, it is suggested.

Another suggestion made is that community trees be erected in different parts of the city and trimmed. They would not need to be large trees, but should be placed in a semi-public place so that the Christmas idea would be presented in that locality.

The News is simply passing these ideas of local citizens along for what they are worth.

In the Yangtsepoo district of China more than 9,000 cotton mill workers are idle because of continued strikes and lockouts.

Equity Hearing Is Before Court Today

Testimony is being heard by Judge Hildebrand today in an equity suit from Ellwood City, brought by Henry T. Irwin and wife against William Bradford and wife, N. W. Neiswonger and Harry L. Gilmore. The suit is the result of a controversy arising over the sale of a property in Ellwood City.

Foreign governments now have control of price and distribution throughout the world of coffee, rubber, long staple cotton, iodine, camphor, nitrates, mercury, potash and sisal.

Thousands Of Deer Hunters Out In State

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 1.—At dawn today thousands of rifles began to sound the death knell to the deer of the state as gunners got an early start on the 1926 deer season, which closes December 15.

The state game commission reported the fleet animal in greater abundance than ever before and predicted that this season's kill will exceed any of the past few years.

It is estimated that more than 50,000 deer hunters took to the wooded sections of the state today. During last season 7,287 bucks were legally killed. It is predicted that more than 8,000 will fall within the next 15 days. There are 600,000 licensed hunters in the state, but many have licenses for small game hunting only.

Bear also are an objective of the hunters, who hope to find deer and bear "keeping company". The bear season opened the middle of last month, but as yet few kills of the latter have been reported.

Among the favored spots for the deer enthusiasts are the Blue Ridge Mountain country, Adams, Franklin and Cumberland counties; the Clinton-Lycoming districts; the Pocono Mountain region and a million-acre tract stretching from Du Bois to Driftwood and extending over parts of Clearfield, Elk and Cameron counties.

There are few sections of the state where it would be impossible to see an occasional deer.

With the opening of the deer season the rabbit season came to a close.

Republican County Treasurer Files Election Account

W. A. Brown filed his report as treasurer of the Republican county committee during the recent campaign. The report shows that there was $3,072.47 collected from all sources and $2,929.15 expended. The largest contribution to the fund was $1,000 from the state committee. Other contributions ran from $5 up to $250. An itemized account of the expenses shows that the money was spent for advertising, postage, printing, cards, watchers at polls and other incidentals.

Pig Roast For Legion Members

Tonight's The Night That Ex-Servicemen Have Been Waiting For

Members of the American Legion are fasting today, not that there is any religious rite to be observed, but the boys are preparing for the pig roast which will be held tonight in the Legion home.

The pigs have been lying in state for a couple of days, and yesterday afternoon Lou McAneny the first cook and a couple of assistants filled the two young porkers with a lot of stuff that looked and smelled tasty, and probably will taste much better.

The menu for tonight sounds like a lunch list for old man Lucullus who was quite an eater in his day. McAneny has promised that the two pigs will be done to a queen's taste tonight and that the accessories, such as baked apples, sweet potatoes, and the etceteras will be just as well done.

A number of guests have been invited and the pig roast promises to be one of those well known "doggy" affairs, or should we say "porky"? It opens promptly at seven o'clock and this doesn't mean 7:01, 2 or 3.

Pennington Takes Over Prohibition Enforcement Under Re-District Plan

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 1.—West Virginia as a prohibition enforcement area today passed under the official authority of John D. Pennington, regional administrator, and the middle judicial district of Pennsylvania was added to the Philadelphia enforcement area under the term of the re-districting plan adopted by Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, assistant secretary of the treasury.

Under the new plan, Pennington has administrative authority over the entire state of West Virginia and the western part of Pennsylvania.

Pennington will make no immediate changes in the personnel of the West Virginia force, which consists of two deputy administrators and 20 agents, he announced, and will re-assign to western Pennsylvania posts those of his agents who were formerly located in the middle district.

French Court Dismisses Suit Against Prince

PARIS, Dec. 1.—Mme. Lambrino's suit against Prince Carol of Roumania was thrown out of the French courts today.

The Seine tribunal declared that it is incompetent to pass judgment upon the claim of the former morganatic wife of the prince for damages of public recognition of her son, as the son of Prince Carol.

During the trial Mme. Lambrino introduced letters in evidence from Carol, admitting paternity, but the court held that the action was beyond its jurisdiction.

Rescue Two Miners Trapped By Fall Of Rock Near Morea, Pa.

(International News Service)

MOREA, Pa., Dec. 1.—Dan Michulosky, 35, and Andrew Mosushuck, 42, miners, were rescued early today from the Morea mine of the Maderia and Hill Coal company, near here, where they had been trapped since late yesterday by a fall of rock. Both men were uninjured and walked out without aid when their rescuers broke through the wall of rock that surrounded them.

The fall of rock blocked their passageway from the mine but failed to catch the men. They tapped constantly on the rock walls of their prison telling their rescuers they were still alive until the second shift of the hastily organized crew of rescue men broke through the fallen debris.

Meeting of Troop 18.

Highland troop 18 held its weekly meeting Tuesday, November 30, with a large attendance of scouts. ... Committeemen Boston and Grafton were present, also Assistant Scoutmaster Bott. Other visitors were Deputy Commissioners Dick Steen and H. Loy.

Several boys passed tenderfoot tests last night, Tom Hawkins, Foster Blanning, Sam Weinschenk, Ned Parlette being the boys who took and passed the test. Mr. Grafton passed tests on observation and Mr. Steen and Mr. Loy passed tenderfoot tests.

Tickets were given out for the Magic Show to be given for the benefit of the troop and the Baldwin Bible class. This show is to be held on December 14.

The next meeting will be held December 7 in the Highland U. P. church basement at 7:30 as usual.

Coolidge Rebate Tax Proposal Is Given Run-Around

Leaders Fail To Include Tax Rebate Proposal In First Measure

RADIO AND BANKING BILLS IN COMMITTEE

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Republican leaders of congress today added to the uncertainty existing over tax legislation in the coming session by failing to include President Coolidge's rebate proposal in the first measures to be considered.

Democratic leaders meantime continued to assert that there is no chance of the administration plan succeeding and urged that the entire tax bill be opened to revision. Representative Finis J. Garrett, of Tennessee, democratice leader, declared the minority would cooperate only on this basis.

Under the present plans of House leaders, the following measures will be given first consideration: Alien property bill, the appropriation bills, the Dill-White radio measures, the McFadden branch banking bill, and the bill to raise salaries of federal judges.

May Delay Tax Bill

With the Ways and Means committee struggling over the alien property bill, it is unlikely that the committee will consider tax legislation until the session is well under way. The tax bill enacted last year was ready when congress convened, and was passed only after a long struggle in both House and Senate.

Chairman Madden of the House Appropriations committee announced that treasury and postoffice, agriculture, interior and navy department bills probably would be ready for introduction on the opening day of congress next Monday.

Both the radio and branch banking bills are in conference and leaders are hopeful of bringing them on to the floor for discussion and passage before the Christmas recess.

Plan Initiation Of New Members Of Junior Hi-Y

At a meeting of the North Street Junior Hi-Y held Tuesday evening November 30 at the Y. M. C. A. two new members were admitted into the club.

They were Bill Caven and Manning Weller. These boys are in for a hot time of it when their initiation comes up on Tuesday evening December 7 at which time the next regular meeting will be held. Besides these two boys there will be four others who will be initiated at this meeting they are Bob Hoose, John Hodge, Allen Garvin and Dave Harris.

During the business meeting of last night Bob Hoose was elected as manger for the basketball team for this year. There were two visitors at the meeting both having been members and officers of this club before going to the senior high school. They were Jack Stone and Paul McWilliams, formerly president and secretary.

With the two new members taken in last night the club now has 26 members.

"Shovel King" Goes On Trial In Pittsburgh

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH. Dec. 1.—Many prominent business and theatrical folk are expected to be called as witnesses in the trial of John W. Hubbard, millionaire "shovel king" charged with breach of promise by Anne Caldwell, New York actress. The trial was to open in federal court here today.

Miss Caldweil asks $500,000 on grounds that Hubbard proposed to her, introduced her as his fiancee, and then broke off the engagement, causing her to be the victim of a nervous breakdown.

The hearing was to have started this morning, but was delayed until later in the day by several other federal court cases.

As two popular tennis stars left the church after their wedding in Enfield, England recently they were compelled to pass under an arch of rackets held in the hands of friends.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

BY MRS. MARY MORTON

WHAT TO SERVE

With your Thanksgiving turkey serve cranberry sauce, of course. If you have goose serve tart apple sauce. With duck black currant jelly or cherry sauce are appropriate.

MENU HINT

This is a rather unusual dinner menu, the carrots and celery being new to most of us who are in the habit of combining carrots and peas. The ginger ale jelly will be a new and delicious dessert recipe to pass on to your friends.

Chopped Round Steak
Baked Potatoes Bran Rolls
Lettuce with French Dressing
(Seasoned with onion or catsup)
Ginger Ale Jelly
Crisp Cookies
Coffee or Substitute

TODAY'S RECIPES

Carrots and Celery

Cook in slightly salted boiling water equal parts of diced carrots and celery cut in small pieces. Use just enough water for cooking so that the vegetables will not have to be drained. When they are thoroughly cooked, add a little cream with no thickening.

Ginger Ale Jelly

Soak one-half box gelatin in one-half cup cold water. Pour over it three-quarter cup boiling water and stir in three-quarter cup sugar. Cool and add one and one-quarter cups ginger ale, one-quarter cup lemon juice. When partly set stir in fruit—orange and red cherries or pineapple and prunes—cut rather fine. This is even better if hot pineapples or prune juice is used instead of the boiling water.

Round Steak

Buy a good piece of round steak and have it ground by the butcher. Season well with salt and pepper, handling meat very lightly. Shape to resemble a "real" steak. Broil so that it is well browned on the surface and rare inside.

SUGGESTIONS

Cooking Cranberries

In cranberry sauce the fruit is cooked until the berries have popped, but the skins are left in the liquid. In cranberry jelly the mixture is put through a collander or sieve. A wire sieve, by the bye, is much easier to use than a collander.

The general rule for cranberry sauce or jelly is as follows: To two parts berries add one part water and one part sugar. That is, for one quart or four cups of cranberries use two cups of water. The fruit is cooked in this until the berries have popped. Then two cups of sugar are added and the berries are cooked for five minutes more. If the mixture is put through the collander the sugar is not added until after the pulp is ready. Then cook with the sugar for three to five minutes.

For glazed cranberries use a heavy aluminum saucepan. Wash the berries, picking out the stems and soft ones. Put one quart of berries in saucepan, add one cup sugar and cook slowly over a low flame for 20 minutes. Shake the pan occasionally as the berries cook, but do not stir lest you break them. They will be glazed, sweet and delicious.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Meat Pie—One and one-half pound round steak ground, two veal kidneys, one onion, salt and pepper.

Wash kidneys, wipe dry. Remove skin and fat. Cut into small pieces and brown with steak and finely chopped onion. Add seasoning. Pour enough boiling water over meat to nearly cover and simmer slowly until nearly done. Cool, pour into deep baking dish. Make a rich pie dough. Put strip around dish to hold top crust. Cover and prick several times with a fork. Bake in a hot oven ten minutes then moderate oven until done. (Meat and gravy may be thickened if desired before baking.)

MENU HINTS

Meat Pie may be made from meat freshly bought and cooked on purpose or it may be one more way of finishing up a roast and some odd bits of chops or steak. Meats may be combined in a pie and the pie be all the better for it. Gravy may also be used up in the same pie.

Meat Pie
Candied Sweet Potatoes with Red Currant Jelly
Hot Sliced Buttered Beets
Celery Hearts Crisp Rolls
Canned Pears Cup Cakes
Coffee or Tea

SUGGESTIONS

Hat Bags From Covers

Cretonne porch pillow covers that are too faded to use again make good hat bags. Take out the pillows, air and sun them and put away for new covers. Wash covers and use them in the clothes closets to keep hats free from dust.

Use the Double Boiler

When you want scrambled eggs to be particularly delicate cook them in the double boiler. Heat the water in the lower part, break an egg into the upper part, add one or two tablespoons of milk, a half teaspoon of butter and speck of salt. Stir with a spoon. The hot water will soon thicken the eggs. They are more creamy, less apt to be watery when prepared in this fashion.

Make Uncle Sam Messenger.

Most telephone services are limited to a certain number of calls. Why not use postal cards for messages that are not in a hurry. Keep a supply of cards and sent them via Uncle Sam. The message will be less likely to be misunderstood. In these days of 'phones, we are apt to forget the mails unless the person we wish to reach is out of town.

Transfer Designs

If transfer designs are kept too long they will not transfer in the usual way. Wet a towel and lay it over the design and go over that with a hot iron. The dampness will penetrate the cloth and leave a nice plain design. Also wet the design, the side which you lay next your goods, and iron over that, pressing it hard with hot iron.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Find No Trace Of Schooner In Kidnaping Plot

Schooner With Two Kidnaped Men On Board Makes Getaway

(International News Service)

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 1.—No trace has been found today of the French rum runner Aresene which was reported to have put to sea with Assistant Prohibition Administrator J. B. Matthews and a chief machinists mate on board.

The coast guard cutter Tallapoosa has been in pursuit of the rum runner since the reported kidnaping Monday and it was believed the schooner was taking Matthews and his aide to Nassau or some other foreign port.

Matthews and the machinist's mate were left on board the rum runner after her capture near Biloxi, Miss., while a patrol boat went after more fuel with which to tow the liquor laden vessel to the Mississippi river quarantine station. After the patrol boat had left, the schooner suddenly moved off with Matthews and the mate aboard and has not been seen since.

Maurice Samuels Makes Address At Beth Shalom Centre

Maurice Samuels, author, and lecturer, a leader in the Zionist movement, spoke to a crowd of approximately 200 Tuesday evening in the Beth Shalom center on the public square.

Mr. Samuels is a speaker of ability, is grounded in the doctrine of Zionism and gave a most interesting address on this subject which is attracting the attention not alone of the Jews but of all other races.

He told of the organization, its purposes, the possibilities of the projected nation in Palestine, and after the lecture answered many questions. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Lewis Kohn.

Adopt New Plan In Charity Fund

Fort Worth, Texas, Plans To Appropriate $50,000 From City Budget

COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVES ARE OVER

By LARRY L. SISK
International News Service Staff Correspondent

FORT WORTH, Texas, Dec. 1.—While other Texas and southwestern cities are trying to raise "Community Chest" charity funds, with which to care for the indigent and the needy for 1927, Fort Worth is sitting back, watching an innovation it has started in this part of the country.

Instead of a campaign by combined charity organizations as in former years, the city treasury will care for necessary charity work here in 1927. Instead of contributions solicited by an army of workers every taxpayer will contribute.

On a suggestion from City Health Officer Martin, the city council appropriated $50,000 for charity work to be included in the city budget for next year. This is less than a third of the goal formerly sought by the Community Chest, but city officials believe it will be sufficient to meet all necessary cases.

The overhead of the Community Chest campaigns, which was enormous, will be eliminated with the money dispensed through the channels of the city welfare board. Various organizations will not participate in the city fund, as they did in the Community Chest. The city council held that money for the Boy Scouts, Y. M. C. A. and similar organizations does not come under the head of necessary charity.

With Texas' popular young attorney general, Dan Moody, due to replace Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson as governor in January, political strategists here and in other cities of Texas, have started the 1928 political bee buzzing, with Moody mentioned as a possible "hope".

The talk is centering around the desirability of having Moody on the Democratic ticket as a candidate for the vice presidential nomination. He is mentioned mostly by those who consider Governor Al Smith of New York as a serious contender for presidential honors.

The argument is that a team of Democrats can win in 1928 only as a long shot entry. The Democrats must have two candidates who will appeal to popular opinion, instead of one strong candidate, it is said. Due to the publicity given to Moody in the colorful campaign between him and Mrs. Ferguson, Texas politicians feel that young Moody now is known nationally.

Moody would come into the picture as a natural balance. If religion enters into the campaign, which is likely in the southern campaign, Moody is a Baptist. Both Smith and Moody are anti-Ku Klux Klan, which would help, as only one or two states are left in the "klan" column. Where Smith may be classed as a wet, Moody is bone dry, never having taken a drink, he says.

With Moody on the ticket, he and Smith would carry the south, it is prognosticated, while a "balance" from the north might endanger Smith's chances in the south.

The talk has gone so far as to dope the probable lineup at the Democratic convention. New York has 90 votes and Texas has 40. Smith's following is believed strong enough to carry Illinois' 58 votes and Pennsylvania's 76, with the possibility of including Ohio. Moody should draw the support of Missouri's 36, and the two possibilities should gain the support of the Massachusetts delegates. This tentative lineup almost could control the convention, the politically wary of Texas believe.

Helium, the non-inflamable gas used to inflate Uncle Sam's cruisers of the air, is a source of much consideration in Fort Worth, although the city rarely has seen the product used. Interest, however, is centered around the helium manufacturing plant, the only one in the country, located here.

The latest point in the helium discussion is the increased cost of production, as if Fort Worth should worry any more than any other city. But the fact remains that the cost is higher now than when the plant began operations, although the actual manufacturing cost is less, due to improvements in machinery and methods.

Causing the increase is the exhaustion of the gas supply in the Petrolia field, frow hich the helium is extracted. The increase will be eliminated when the new pipe line to the Texas Panhandle field is laid. Plans for the new pipe line are expected to be completed soon.

Auditor General To Appoint Appraiser

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., Dec. 1.—A mercantile appraiser for Mercer county is appointed this month at Harrisburg by the auditor general. The official begins his term of service in January of 1927. Due to the size of the county the office is one that pays a lucrative salary for the period of time involved.

It is said that there a number of applicants for the position.

The appointment is made each December for the succeeding year. It has been the practice of selection to rotate the appointment. Guy Carmen of Greenville was the 1926 choice.

AUTOMOBILE STOLEN AT SHARON TUESDAY

Police authorities of Sharon last night asked the local police authorities to be on the lookout for a Cadillac coupe, 1922 model and bearing Pennsylvania license 39-715 which was stolen from the streets of that city during the evening. The automobile had a doctor's emblem on the front of it.

The RIM of The LIMELIGHT

TRAVELS IN STYLE.

SYRACUSE, Dec. 1.—One hundred and fifty miles is a long trip even for a taxi driver and so when they arrived in this city from Albany, Raymond Whitey, 22 the passenger, invited John Melville the driver to have breakfast with him in a local restaurant and rest himself before the return journey. Breakfast over Whitey was presented with the check which he calmly turned over to his companion with the remark that he had no funds.

Whitey was taken to police headquarters. There it developed that he had taken the taxi from Albany because he preferred riding that method of travel to riding on trains. He told the police that he had just returned from a sea trip through the Panama canal and that he was a former student at the University of Michigan. He also insisted that he had given the driver two diamonds valued at $100 to pay for the taxi ride. Melville could not be located.

"EVIDENCE" BLOWS UP.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Lieutenants Thomas Cahill and John Collins of the West Forty-Seventh street station were under the impression that a gang war had broken out when they were startled by a series of explosions as they bent over their work at the station desk Particles of glass and liquid showered the room and the two instinctively ducked. A few seconds later "Broadway Johnny" as Collins is known began to grin for a fragrant odor permeated the room. It developed that the "evidence" of a recent raid on one of the city's speak easies which had been stored at the station had blown up. About half of the 20 bottles of various liquors were destroyed. The "evidence" was all over the place and the officers ordered what remained to be taken to a cooler storeroom.

THEFT REPORTED.

Rushing Work On Mercer County Jail

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., Dec. 1.—The 14 cells in the upper tier in the county jail here completed by December 10, is the hope expressed by the county commissioners today. The Van Doren Iron company of Cleveland which is the contractor has held forth promise of such completion.

The remodeling of the jail has been on since in September. The completion of this upper tier would make possible the bringing back of prisoners now held at Franklin in the Venango county jail to Mercer. All possible speed is being made ot bring this about.

Choir Rehearsal At Trinity Church

Choir of Trinity Episcopal church will meet for rehearsal in the Guild room of the church on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Preparations for the Christmas music will also be made at this time.

YOUNGSTOWN COAL DEALER SLAIN IN OFFICE BY ROBBER

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Dec. 1—With a bullet through his heart, Ralph Fredricks, 37 coal dealer was found yesterday in his office here. Robbery is seen as the motive for the slaying. There is no clue to the slayer.

The body was discovered by Dan Kane truck driver for the company Kane and another driver, William Keenan were in the office at 9:30 when a stranger applied for work, but was told by Fredericks he needed no help. The stranger saw the drivers hand over to Fredericks $40 in bills.

It is believed Fredericks was slain shortly afterward. In his pockets 59 cents was found.

Ah, well, all the cuss words a pedestrian learns come in handy for application to jaywalkers when at last he gets a car.

Bear Chases Hunter, Who Loses $150 Rifle

HAZLETON, Pa., Dec. 1.—Lewis Rossi of Sybertsville near here, had an exciting experience with a bear while hunting in the North mountain. He was alone at the time when he noticed Bruin coming toward him, and as the animal got close he tried to shoot it, but his gun failed to go off.

The bear evidently sensed that he had been a mark for death and attacked Rossi, who dropped his rifle, valued at $150, and ran as fast as he could for his camp. He proved fleeter of foot than the bear and got in safely. He will organize a party within the next two days to go to the same spot in an effort to recover his rifle.

Why don't the politicians remind Reed that the slogan of his State is "Show me," not, "Show me up."

Hankow Situation Becoming Worse

American Destroyers With 400 Marines Aboard Steam Into Hankow

CITIZENS PREPARE FOR LONG SIEGE

(International News Service)

SHANGHAI, Dec. 1.—The situation at Hankow where a general strike by Chinese servants, police and customs officials is in progress is steadily becoming worse, according to messages from the up-river city today. The city was reported placarded with threatening posters and under a reign of terror.

The Cantonese forces, said to be supporting the Chinese employes' demand for higher wages, have already invaded the foreign concessions, according to one report.

The foreign residents were said to be preparing for a siege by accumulating stocks of food supplies.

Marines Arrive.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—The American destroyers Pope and Truxton have arrived at Hankow with 400 marines and bluejackets on board, according to a Central News dispatch from Hankow today.

Star Of Wales Lodge Meeting On December 11

News Notes Of Interest To New Castle Welsh Folks

Officers of the Star of Wales lodge No. 60, True Ivorites of America, wish to notify the members that the regular meeting of the lodge, which was to be held Saturday, December 4, will be postponed until December 11. This meeting time is changed owing to the fact that the New Castle Glee club will be giving a concert Saturday, December 4, and a good many of the officers of the lodge are members of the glee club.

Most of the members of this club who were on the sick list are or have recovered. Harry Davies, who was operated on in Philadelphia; John Harvard, father of Sue Harvard Armstrong, and Daniel J. Davies, father of Councilman D. O. Davies, are among those recovered. The following are still on the sick list: Edward Gibbon, Griffith M. Jones and John D. Williams.

A letter was received this week from Thomas Edwards and family of Pico, California, notifying their friends here that their daughter Edith and her husband, John Rodgers, and son Edward have arrived there safely and that they will make their home in the Golden state.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Powell of Edison avenue have arrived home after spending Thanksgiving with friends at Columbus. They had a very enjoyable time.

Word was received from South Wales this week stating that there was much suffering there and want could be seen everywhere. This is due to the long strike of the miners in England and Wales. They feel very thankful for what the Americans have done in the last few weeks, in collecting money to help feed the little children and women.

Good news was received from Mr. and Mrs. William J. Davies and brother-in-law, David Lewis, who are in Florida. They state that the weather there is fine and they will stay there over the winter.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Dec. 1.—Five persons were injured here when a Johnstown traction car and a Southern Cambria car collided at a grade crossing, but all were released from hospitals today after receiving first aid treatment.

Slippery rails caused the motorman of the Johnstown car to lose control and the car ploughed into the side of the Southern Cambria car. William B. Schoenthal, the motorman, was the most seriously injured. Others injured were passengers cut by flying glass.

Retires On Pension After Long Service For Pennsy R. R.

Samuel C. Clendenin, crossing watchman, Sharpsville, Pa., E. and A. division retires on pension today after 43 years, six months' active service. Mr. Clendenin entered the service of the company as trackman on June 5, 1883 and 1910 was assigned to crossing watchman. For 15 years he has been located on the crossing at Walnut street, Sharpsville, during which time only one accident has occurred on the crossing while he was in charge.

SAMUEL C. CLENDENIN.

In 1891 a man of 73 years attempted to go over the crossing ahead of a train and after flagging him Mr. Clendenin called to him and in endeavoring to rescue him had a narrow escape from injury, himself. Sam is known far and near for his faithfulness.

He is also a friend of boys. For a long time three small boys have called on him every morning to see if he had anything for them to do. It had been his practice to keep his glass jug near at hand so he could give it to them with the request that they have it filled with water. After the boys get he water they always go away with a smile on their faces for Sam never disappoints them in reaching into his pocket and giving each a penny or nickel. He nicknamed these boys Joe Penny, Tony Penny and Mike Penny.

Not long ago Joe Penny got hurt and was taken to the hospital. On arrival the first thing he asked was "Do you suppose Sam will be up to see me?" He had hardly asked the question when Sam appeared to find out how serious was the boy's injury and of course Joe was mighty glad to see him.

Later Mr. Clendenin was taken suddenly ill while on duty at the crossing. Soon one of the Peny boys came along and asked what was the matter. Sam requested him to go tell Section Foreman Penniman to send up a man to relieve him. When the relief man came the boy said to Sam: "Now I am going to take you home" and he did.

Mr. Clendenin was born at Transfer, Pa. One brother William B., resides in Cleveland, O., a brother John in Sharpsville, a sister, Mrs. Isabella Dickson in Sharon and another sister Mrs. Lawrence at Transfer. Mr. Clendenin never married and has made his home with the same family in Sharpsville for 41 years.—The Pennsylvania News.

[WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT . . . BUICK WILL BUILD THEM . . .]

No Engine Fumes in Buick closed cars

In the 1927 Buick, the new Vacuum Ventilator pulls engine fumes and gases from the crankcase and ejects them outside the car.

This vital new Buick improvement does away with noxious odors. It adds greater luxury and pleasure to enclosed car operation.

Close the windows tight, drive the car at any speed, and prove to yourself that the Buick engine never contaminates the air you breathe.

The Vacuum Ventilator serves another very important purpose. With it, crankcase vapors have no opportunity to condense and dilute the oil. Owners of 1927 Buicks are advised to drain their crankcase oil only 4 times during the year.

For luxury, and for economy, own a Buick. Come in today and see what we mean when we say: "The Greatest Buick ever built."

Nine Major Reasons for Choosing CROMAR Oak Flooring

(No. 4)

A CROMAR floor costs less than a good carpet

WITH this unusual product, the scraping, two sandings, filling, two varnishings and waxing are done by speedy, patented machines—and before the material reaches you. With other hardwood flooring, all that is done after the floor is nailed down—one job at a time. And the labor costs more than the material!

Don't figure CROMAR cost per foot of flooring—figure the final cost per room! CROMAR floors actually cost less than good carpets, in spite of numerous advantages.

Apple Crop Is Reported As Lost

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Dec. 1.—Thousands of barrels of apples are rotting in the large orchards of this section and are being given away to those who apply for them.

The crop of the season was the largest for many years and the orchard men failed to harvest the fall crops for lack of men to do the work while the recent storms cleaned the trees of fruit.

The storage houses here are filled to the doors by barrels of the fruit and the growers abandoned thousands of trees of the late varieties allowing the fruit to fall to the ground to rot.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—The superior court today ordered a number of rare autographed volumes by Robert Louis Stevenson, valued at $100,000 and known as the Jules Simoneau collection, transferred to Prof. Arthur Arlon of the University of Michigan from the estate of the late Andrew A. Brown, San Francisco sugar magnate.

The transfer order was in accordance with Brown's will which provides that on Prof. Arlon's death the collection goes to the University of California library.

Simoneau was a tavern keeper and nursed Stevenson back to health when the author suffered from tuberculosis. He came into possession of the volumes at that time and they were later purchased by the sugar magnate.

NEW LOWER PRICES remove the Chrysler "60" further than ever from any other light six in the industry

Nothing so surely emphasizes the unique value that Chrysler "60" offers as the attempt to compare Chrysler "60" performance with that of other cars in its price class.

The difference is so pronounced—in smoothness of operation, in wealth of power, in alert response to steering wheel and throttle—that anybody driving or riding in the Chrysler "60" recognizes it at once.

The model number "60" means a 60-mile-an-hour standard of performance. This, combined with proved long life of Chrysler products, is made mechanically inevitable by the unique Chrysler plan of Standardized Quality manufacture.

At its new lower prices, the Chrysler "60" stands forth more emphatically than ever—a value not even remotely approached by any other light six in the industry. A demonstration at your convenience will speedily convince you.

Uniontown Judge Scores Auto Drivers

Fayette Jurist Demands Strict Law Enforcement And Points Out Courtesies

UNIONTOWN, Dec. 1. — With 270 persons injured, many seriously, and 29 killed by automobiles, during the last eleven months, Judge Thomas H. Hudson, in addressing the grand jury today demanded a strict enforcement of the automobile laws in order to halt the auto slaughter. The court declared that considering the ratio of popularity to the square mile, Fayette county has the most thickly car-owned and car-driven population in the world.

The court blames careless and reckless driving for the large number of accidents. Judge Hudson made it plain that it was the duty of every officer in Fayette county to assist in the enforcement of the automobile laws. He told the grand jury that the 270 total did not represent entirely the number of injured as many were not seriously enough hurt to be taken to hospitals and that 270 had received hospital treatment.

The judge suggested that the common courtesies of the highway be observed. "If the driver of a motor vehicle, when overtaking another car, would not attempt to pass such a vehicle at intersecting highways or at sharp curves or the crest of a hill or would slow down at intersecting highways, there would be fewer accidents," declared the court.

Intoxicated drivers also were roundly scored by Judge Hudson, who indicated that severe penalties would be imposed in cases where the automobile laws were disregarded.

Judge Hudson closed his remarks to the grand jury with this statement:

"As far as it lies within our power, we intend to see that our automobile laws are enforced."

Scientist Devises Sun Ray To Melt Ice Pack

FRANKLIN, Dec. 1.—Dr. Howard T. Barnes, professor of physics of McGill University, Montreal who was here last winter directing thermite experiments and attempts to move the ice gorge which packed the Allegheny river has now devised a lamp to stop anchor ice. Anchor ice is that which forms at the bottom of open water and only at night.

Dr. Barnes has devised a lamp which gives out rays to imitate the rays of the sun. Concerning the nature of the agent or agents giving out the new rays he is not prepared to make any statement until he has put the lamp to the test. The work will be begun it is understood in late December or January.

"Thermite is the nearest action to sunlight that I have been able to use for solid ice in the ice-pack," Dr. Barnes said. The new artificial ray which he hopes to find will be more powerful.

Leviathan Owl Is Given To Zoo

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Out of a blue sky, 1,000 miles from land, a white owl, of rare species, flew to the rigging of the Leviathan and so into possession of the New York Zoo.

The gift was announced by Captain Hartley, of the Leviathan, upon the ship's arrival. The bird alighted in mid-ocean, Captain Hartley said, and apparently had relayed from other liners.

Training Class Enjoys Banquet

Celebration Takes Place On Monday Evening—News Of Jackson Centre

(Special To The News)

JACKSON CENTER, Dec. 1.—The Community Teachers' Training class of district No. 3 held a celebration Monday night in the Millbrook Presbyterian church. The students who passed their examinations were awarded their credits by the dean of the school, Miss Mary Griffin.

Remarks were made by Rev. Smith, president of the board of religious education, also by Prof. W. M. Johnston, Rev. W. H. Nicholson and Rev. S. C. Elder, members of the faculty. Several county Sunday school workers were present who also gave short talks. Miss Mary Hildebrand, county secretary; Mrs. Bean, who is known by the young people as Mother Bean, and Rev. Reinold of St. John's church near Fredonia. Plans were made for holding the next semester beginning about the middle of April. Eleven different schools and four different denominations are represented in this community training class. All are rural schools.

RETIRED RAILROADER FETED

A banquet was held on Saturday night in honor of Mr. Goodwin, who has been honorably retired by the Pennsylvania Railroad company. The foreman of the section and the section men who were associated with Mr. Goodwin, were the principal guests at the banquet. Mr. Goodwin will receive a pension from the railroad company.

SPECIAL SERMON

Rev. S. C. Elder is preaching a series of sermons from the first epistle of Peter. A sermon will be preached each Sunday from each chapter. It is an old slogan that "A chapter from the Bible each day will keep the devil away." In our search for some good book to read during the long winter evenings why not the Bible? Especially the first epistle of Peter.

Henry Winklevoos and family have moved into their recently purchased new home which was formerly the property of Mr. Winklevoos' father, August Winklevoos. His brother Ray, who has been living in part of the house, will continue to do so.

John R. White of Baden recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White.

Mrs. Louise Hause and Miss Anna Kenauff of Longmont, Colo., and Mrs. Louise Straupe of Greenville were recent visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brazel's.

Miss Elizabeth Pizer, who is attending New Castle Business college, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Pizer.

The farmers have suffered a severe loss to their potato crop due to the wet season. Numerous growers put their loss at hundreds of bushels. McDowell brothers estimate they still have undug 1,000 bushels which are probably rotten now and are thus a total loss.

Rev. R. C. Douds of Stoneboro was a caller in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Smale have returned to their home in Cleveland, O., after a few weeks' visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Infield.

"Now, pop, there's Daniel Goof, he's a good, honest, hard working self assertive nominee with plenty of ability. He'd make a good governor for our state."

"Yessiree But, son, that's just the reason he'll never be nominated."

Dad: Mary I hope you're not allowing that young man who is calling on you to hug you.

Pretty Daughter: Daddy, why do you think such a thing?

Dad: Because I'd be doing so if I were in his place.

THAW FINDS HAPPINESS AIDING GIRL

Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, tells a Central Press correspondent he has found happiness in aiding others with his money. He has engaged Mrs. Dorothy Frooks as counsel to defend Mrs. Catherine De Nino, 16, who is held for killing a man she says betrayed her when she was 12. Photos are of Thaw (his latest portrait); Mrs. Frooks and her client, Mrs. De Nino; and the girl-wife's child, Albert.

Oh How They Lied?

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 1.—Six hundred members of the Retail Meat Dealers' association told their wives they were going to a meeting to learn new wrinkles about getting higher prices for the cheaper cuts, and so forth

At the Eagles hall, after the business was disposed of, two girls appeared on the platform and began to dance. It was warm in the hall, and the girls began shedding their sparse drapery.

Finally, at the height of a fast Charleston, they got down to "essentials" and the cheers rose louder and louder.

Then a police captain and ten coppers butted in and pinched the house.

The butchers were detained half an hour, but later permitted to go home, while the two girls and the chairman of the program committee were booked for participating in and promoting an indecent exposition.

Sale Of Articles To Start Thursday

Articles made in the Pennsylvania workshop of the blind will be on sale Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the New Castle Dry Goods Company, under the auspices of the New Castle Section National Council of Jewish Women, assisted by members of the Federation of Women's Clubs.

The proceeds will be used entirely for the benefit of blind persons who made the articles, and the sale should be well patronized.

Woman's Club Is Making Plans For Community Tree

The Civic department of the Woman's Club is busy preparing for the Community Christmas tree on the Diamond.

The idea of having a tree on the Diamond was conceived of by a member of the Woman's Club four years ago. In spite of lack in interest on the part of some of the public the measure was pushed through by the help of the City in buying the tree and putting it up; some of the electrical concerns wiring it, the Womans Club paying for all wiring and bulbs and the New Castle Electric company donating the electricity.

The second and third year the Woman's Club paid the electricians for wiring and dismantling the tree, and last year the Electrical League came to the club and offered their services free for the wiring and dismantling the tree.

This year the same thing is being done, the city providing the tree and the Electrical company providing the electricity for one week.

Thus this sponsoring of the tree has become an annual event of the Woman's Club.

Son To Carry On Work Of Father

Guy Zimmerman, Jr., Entertains Boys At Neighborhood House Tuesday Night

It will be remembered by many people of this city, how for several years previous to his recent death, that Guy Zimmerman had charge of the activities of the boys at the Neighborhood House on Scioto street. He always had something doing for the boys and they liked him. His sudden death put a damper on the place and its activities.

But the boys are again rejoicing, as Guy Zimmerman, Jr., a son of the former director of activities at the place, has decided to keep up the work of his father and take his place as far as possible.

Last night, he entertained the boys, at the Neighborhood House. There was something doing all the time. There was music, games and contests. Then there was the eats, consisting of seven dozen doughnuts presented by the Orr Baking company, bananas, candy and apples.

There were eighty-four boys present at this opening event by Guy Zimmerman, Jr.

The affair is under the joint management of the Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs and is being held for the purpose of publicly commending the work of the team this season upon the gridiron.

Andy Kerr, coach of W. and J. will be the speaker of the evening with James K. Love acting as toastmaster of the evening.

With the membership of the clubs and the football men the crowd will prooably aggregate 300

MEETING REQUIREMENTS

"There are four requisites to a good stort story," explained the English teacher to the class. "Brevity, a reference to religion, some association with the royalty and an illustration of modesty. Now, with these four things in mind, I will give you thirty minutes to write a story."

Ten minutes later the hand of Sandy went up.

"That is fine, Sandy," she exclaimed, "and now read your story to the class."

Sandy read: "My Gawd," said the countess, "take your hand off my knee."

She: How did you happen to graduate from college this year?

He: Had to. My dad cut my allowance so low there was no fun staying any longer.

2nd Ditto: A tin type, I presume.

Troop A To Drill Thursday Night

Initiate Many Into Ahepa Here

MEMBERS HEAR OF CHAPTER GROWTH

Not since the organization of the Ahepa in New Castle has there been such a large class of candidates initiated as there was on Tuesday night in the Modern Woodmen's hall. Approximately 25 were admitted and while most of them were from New Castle, some were from cities as far away as Oil City.

Supreme Secretary A. J. Nickas, an attorney of Washington, D. C., acted as master of initiation, with President Speer Marousis of the local chapter assisting.

Following the initiation, a banquet was held in Candyland with the members and the newly elected members present.

The Ahepa is growing at a rapid rate among the Greeks in America. With the principles of Americanism as its guiding light it promises to be a factor in the Americanization of men and women who come from Greece to make their homes here. Already there are some 15,000 in the order in America with this number increasing monthly.

Fail To Confirm Chinese Clashes; Americans Safe

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—While grave concern was felt here today over the situation at Hankow, China, where 600 Americans are menaced by Chinese revolutionary fighting which is of an anti-foreign character, state department officials were unable to confirm that American marines have been landed there to assist the troops of other foreign powers in protecting foreign rights.

Two American destroyers, the Truxton and the Pope, with 400 marines aboard are due to arrive in the Hankow district some time today.

Alarming rumors that the foreign troops already have clashed with Chinese forces could not be confirmed.

Fire Does Damage To Local Plant

A considerable amount of damage was done this morning at the New Castle works of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company by a fire that resulted from an acetylene torch falling from a tressle on which it was being used, onto the roof of an adjoining building. The torch was on fire when it fell and a considerable fire ensued between the engine room of the plant and the restaurant. The firemen were called by an alarm from box 82 at 9:25 a. m. They found the fire to be of a rather stubborn nature owing to the place where it occurred and it took some little time to put it out.

Cedar Mop Believed Cause Of Fire Loss

Firemen were called to the home of George Wolfe, South Mercer street, this morning about 10 o'clock by an alarm from box 83. The firemen on their arrival found a fire in progress in a corner of the kitchen behind the stove. There was a loss of at least $75 sustained before the fire was out. It is believed that the fire originated in a cedar mop in the corner behind the stove, when the heat of the room caused spontaneous combustion to occur in the mop. Mr. Wolfe had one hand severely burned in throwing out the burning mop.

Santa Claus Arrives In Parachute And, True To Form, Lands On Roof

Indiana Crowd Rushes To Rescue As He Leaps From Plane, But Finds Him Calmly Adjusting Whiskers And Breeches

KOKOMO, Iud., Dec. 1.—A slave to habit Santa Claus in a prearranged rehearsal yesterday landed on a roof and in the venture almost became a disabled Santa Claus.

Scheduled to arrive by airplane Santa was awaited by hundreds of youngsters at a local park where he was to descend in a parachute. The plan appeared with St. Nicholas standing on one of the wings waving a greeting. He opened the chute and started on a thousand foot drop.

Parachutes are not as manageable as the mythical "Thunder and Lightning" team and Santa misjudged the windage. Instead of landing in the park he swung heavily to the roof of a nearby house and fell 20 feet.

Senior High School News

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT
Physics.

Any technical student of the school has on his schedule three subjects that deal with science. These are mathematics, chemistry and physics. Of these three subjects physics has proven to be the most interesting, but the hardest, because in it one has to know something about the other two in order to get along. They must know mathematics especially.

Physics can be divided into six parts, each one taken up separately. These are mechanics, heat, light, electricity, sound and motion. Under each one of these, there are many laws and theories, the explanations of each being followed by practical exercises, consisting of problems in mathematics, written work and experiments. To make physics more interesting it has been made a two period subject, and during one period experiments are done on the class work to make it clearer and also to prove the theories taken up in the class. In the last period the daily lesson is discussed and talks on subjects concerning physics are given, all of which are helpful in making the subject more interesting and at the same time gives one a knowledge of the more recent discoveries in the work.

PECULIAR REPTILE

A spotted salamander was brought to the biology room of the school by Virginia Kamerer. It is seven inches long, as thick as one's thumb, slate gray in color with yellow spots. Because it has four legs and a long tail, it is called a lizard by many people who find them.

Far from being a reptile it is the cousin of the toad and frog, the only difference being that it has never grown up and lost its tail. Its kinship with a frog may be easily seen by the smooth moist skin. Any reptile has a scaly skin.

The salamander is quite harmless and makes an interesting addition to the aquarium where it is at present. However, it has lungs and breathes air so a rock had to be placed in the middle of the aquarium so that it could get out of the water to rest and breathe.

The animal lives in moist places under leaves, rotting logs, etc. It goes to the water in breeding season, where it deposits a jelly like mass of eggs which hatch into tadpoles. They usually leave the water at the end of the first season.

In Later Years of Life

Good Elimination is More Than Ever Important.

As we grow older, there is apt to be a gradual slowing up of the bodily functions. In youth or in age, good elimination is essential to good health. When past middle age, a careful watch of the eliminative processes is more than ever important. The kidneys are the filters of the blood. Proper function cleanses the blood stream thoroughly. Sluggish function is apt to permit some retention of uric acid and other waste. The presence of these toxic poisons makes itself felt in many unpleasant ways. One is apt to feel achy, tired and listless. A dull, toxic backache is a frequent symptom with drowsy headaches and dizziness. That the kidneys are not functioning properly is often shown by scanty or burning passages. Elderly people are learning the virtue of occasional use of Doan's Pills—stimulant diuretic to the kidneys in this condition. They recommend Doan's the country over. Ask your neighbor!

Earthquakes Cause Heavy Losses In Armenia, Is Report

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 1.—The disastrous earthquake in Armenia will be a mater of life and death to the 100,000 homeless peasants within a few weeks. The country is located nearly a mile above sea level and the winters are therefore very severe. Within another month the savagery of winter will overwhelm the entire area which has ben devastated by the quake. Early in November snow buries the villages and piles against the peasant cottages until the edges of the roofs seem to be only cracks in the sides of snow drifts.

Leninakan, center of the seismic disturbance is in the center of a district which has been frequently visited by earthquakes in the past, although none of the tremors have been of any serious consequence since that of 1840 which shook off a segment of the 17,000-foot-high cone of old Mount Ararat, burying the village and monastery of Arghurl and snuffing out the lives of the 600 villagers. Both village and monastery wer covered more than 200 feet dep by the debris from the mountain landslide and no trace of either buildings or people has ever been discovered.

American relief workers and 9,000 orphans in their care are reported by radio to the Near East Relief to be living in tents in a raging blizzard which followed a new series of heavy earthquake shocks. The continuation of the tremors has aroused a near panic and J. W. Beach managing director of the organization sent an appeal for scientific information from the observatories at Georgetown and Fordham Universities. Natives are living in hastily constructed dugouts and thousands are in flight towards the Georgia border driven by superstitious fear. There are 45,000 homeless in Armenia alone.

Boy Scouts Make Good On High School Football Team; Many On '26 Squad

J. Lee Calahan, Boy Scout executive of the Lawrence county council, in investigating to see what the Scouts are doing after they have passed the years of active participation in Scout work, was surprised to discover the large number of Scouts who were members of the New Castle High school football team during the past season.

He was likewise well pleased to see that the Scout training had been continued and that the lads were keeping to the front in their athletics. He believes that the Scout training of earlier years had much to do with fitting the boys for their high school athletics.

The indications are that scores of Scouts are being fitted at the present time to represent their schools on the gridiron and in other lines of athletics in future years.

Deputy Customs Collector At Erie Arrested

(International News Service)

ERIE, Pa., Dec 1.—Roy Yeager, deputy collector of customs at Erie, was arrested today by Deputy United States Marshal Jack Austin, charged with possesion of liquor, transportation of liquor and conspiring against the United States with John Quinn, former prohibition agent here, and Wesley Moffett, former attorney in the prohibition department.

The arrest of Yeager was the third in connection with the robbery of the Erie warehouse last summer of 508 cases of Canadian ale, seized from Amos Vandeveer, said to be the most daring of Canadian rum runners.

Agents working out of the office of Prohibition Administrator John D. Pennington at Pittsburgh have been investigating the ale theft from the government vaults in the plant of the Erie Storage & Carting company since it was discovered last August. Late in August, Quinn and Moffett were arrested by John Williams and held in bail for trial. Complaint against Moffett was made by James Frayne, an investigator from the office of Administrator Pennington. When arraigned before United States Commissioner Enoch Filer this morning Yeager gave bail for a preliminary hearing, the bond being furnished by his father.

M'Cormick Gave $3052 To Wilson War Chest

Harrisburg Democratic Leader Biggest Contributor To Campaign Fund

HARRISBURG, Dec. 1. — The Independent Wilson for Senator Committee, which backed the candidacy of the Tioga man for the United States Senate, drew largely from McCormick Democratic factional sources for its $8,883.08 of campaign funds, according to the statement filed at the State Bureau of Elections by Emery Rockwell, of Wellsboro, the treasurer. All the money was spent, and the last contributor was Vance C. McCormick, former Democratic National chairman, who gave $552.08, apparently to close up the job, after contributing $2500. He was the big giver. The National Senatorial campaign committee gave $2000 "through W. B. Wilson," as the account states.

Three members of Mr. McCormick's family, Henry B. McCormick, Mrs. Gertrude McCormick and Miss Anne McCormick each gave $250. A. M. Thompson, Pittsburgh, is credited with a similar sum. There are several $100 gifts, including F. S. Guthrie, Pittsburgh; J. W. Gitt, York; S. S. Bryan, Titusville; R. W. Knox, Washington, and others. S. Fels, Philadelphia, gave $1000, and E. A. Van Valkenburg is listed with a $10 contribution. Paul M. Pearson sent $5 from Ossawotomie, Kansas.

DR. GREEN TO GIVE CLOSING LECTURE IN FIRST CHURCH

Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of the New Castle public schools, will deliver a lecture on "The History of the Presbyterian Church in America" at the mid-week prayer service this evening in the First Presbyterian church. This is the final lecture in the course on the history of Prebyterianism which Dr. Green has delivered to increasing audiences in the First church.

The speaker is familiar with his subject and has the faculty of presenting it in an instructive manner. A large congregation should hear his concluding message this evening.

Put Breeding Flock In Good Condition

Now is the time to put the breeding flock in shape, says W. B. Connell, sheep and wool extension specialist of the Pennsylvania State college. A bad, wet season, especially in the fine wool sections, necessitates careful management of the breeding flock.

"For," declares Connell, "if a fine-wool sheep gets wet in the fall it does not dry out until spring unless it dies."

He says there is an old adage among sheep men that, "A sheep coming into the barn in good condition in the fall is half wintered."

A mixture of 300 pounds of oats, 200 pounds of corn, 100 pounds of bran, and 50 pounds of oil meal makes a good grain combination for the breeding flock. It is fed daily at the rate of one-half to three-fourths of a pound per head. Where silage is available, Connell recommends feeding three pounds per head each day. This will help put the sheep into good condition.

Her Hair Fairly SPARKLES Now!

do after waving her hair doesn't fear the effect of hot irons. Nor of frequent washings. A few drops of Danderine—on comb or towel—and the hair is soft and lustrous, and behaves beautifully.

A bit of Danderine rubbed lightly into the scalp, is the one sure way to dissolve every particle of dandruff. But a few drops more make a dressing that is simply marvelous. A sheen that rivals brilliantine, and no grease! Any permanent wave or water wave lasts much longer when Danderine is used instead of water to "set" the wave.

PETERS ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

By Florence Smith Vincent

FIRE! FIRE!

"A man of Long Ago, acushlas, never went back on his word. Coal Black Beauty's choice was the Horse's very own and therefore not to be disputed. Master's Beloved had won.

"Around Beauty's neck were thrown two arms. And Black Beauty, who but so short a while before had tried with might and main to escape the grip of the hated Two-Legs, now stood meek as a Lamb with a Two-Legs' arms about him.

"'Mine, all mine! And how I shall love you!' cried a voice like silver bells. And Beauty quivered again—not with fear this time, but with the sheer joy of living. To be loved, and by a creature so beautiful. Truly, this was even more wonderful than to be pride of one's heart.

"But as Beauty remembered what the Man had called him he was a bit troubled. He still was loyal to his Master, you see, my dears, but he loved his Mistress best; so he looked out of the corner of his eye and—Master was smiling.

"'The Horse is yours, but you are my wife, so you both belong to me!' cried the Man, and when he heard this all was right with Beauty's world. Then Master threw up his hand.

"'Now for the feast!' called he. And when the women ran to make it ready, behold, the fire was out.

"'Ho, careless wives!' scoffed the men. 'Is it thus you guard the flames?' But they were not really cross, for they laughed among themselves. Wander came close to Beauty and barked;—

"'Now shall you see, Wild Horse, how my Two-Legs make fire! Watch!'

THE MAN PUT DOWN THE STICKS AND BLEW UPON THEM

"So Beauty watched. And one Man came running with two sticks and knelt upon the ground, and, taking the two sticks, rubbed them hard one upon the other. Beauty could scarcely believe his own eyes. Soon between the Man's sticks there glowed a coal. The sticks were on fire.

"Then the Man put down the sticks upon the ground and blew upon them.

"Puff! Puff! Puff!

"His breath fanned the coals and there was flame. And two more Men came hurrying with more sticks. These they placed upon the first two and soon there was a fire."

Next: "On With the Feast."

DINNER STORIES

A certain clergyman had occasion to preach to the inmates of an insane hospital. During his sermon he noticed that one of the patients paid the closest attention, his eyes riveted upon the preacher's face, his body bent eagerly forward. Such interest was most flattering. After the service, the speaker noticed that the man spoke to the superintendent, so as soon as possible the preacher inquired.

"Didn't that man speak to you about my sermon?"

"Yes."

"Would you mind telling me just what he said?"

The superintendent tried to sidestep, but the preacher insisted.

"Well," he said at last, "what the man said was, 'Just think, he's out and I'm in'."

"Mummy!" sobbed Willie. "Do my ears belong to my neck or my face?"

"Well, you told Mary to wash my face, and she's washed my ears, too!"

"Were you begging on the streets?" asked the judge.

"No, your honor," disclaimed Windy Walt in hurt tones. "I solicit in the leading hotel lobbies and the better theatre foyers."

"Dorothy is very devoted to him, isn't she?" observed one.

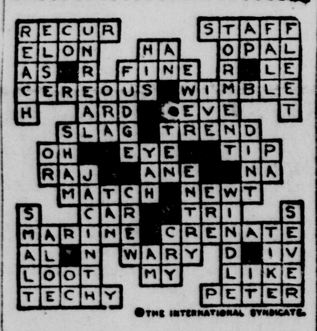

"She's head over heels in love with him," was the rejoinder. "She's stopped drinking, she's stopped smoking and she's stopped swearing, all for his sake."

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—A lock of hair protruding from a "bag of sugar" led to the discovery of five stowaways on the Munson liner Munargo, which arrived here today. Three Spaniards and two Portuguese were found hidden in the cargo of 21,700 bags of sugar soon after the Munargo left Nassau last Friday.

Eight Spaniards and six Portuguese stowaways were dug from the hold of Munson liner Munirleans Saturday where they were hidden under several tons of soft coal, their heads protected by wooden horse collars.

WESTMINSTER HARRIERS NAME ROSE CAPTAIN

Former Track Star Honored

Former New Castle High Track Star Elected Leader Of Cross-Country Team

TWO MEMBERS WILL GRADUATE

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Dec. 1—Wesley Rose of New Castle, a member of the junior class at Westminster college, has been elected captain of the 1927 cross country team at Westminster.

For two years Rose was a member of the varsity track squad, starring in the two-mile event. He then dropped out of school for a year. On his return this fall, he reported for cross country and his work was the outstanding feature of a rather drab season. His election has proven popular not only with track men but students in general.

Lose Two Members.

Two members of the squad will be lost by graduation. They are Edward Brown of New Wilmington, a member of the squad for three years, and Eddie McKelvey of Ligonier. Incidently Brown is holder of the tri-state conference record in the high jump. Both lads will be sorely missed.

Those remaining to form the nucleus for next year's outfit are Captain Rose, retiring Captain Orvil Mirtz of Pittsburgh, David Myers of Sharon, Ross Ellis of Jamestown and Byers King of Cooperstown.

Here And There In Sports' Land

By ED. FRITZ

OSCAR Stanage, catcher, with the Detroit Tigers for 10 years, and Jewel Ens, with the Pirates for several seasons, will be aides to Donie Bush, manager of Pittsburgh, this season, according to announcement today. Donie Believes Oscar will make good at Pittsburgh. Jack Onslow, who formerly held the job that Stanage will fill this season, will manage a minor league team.

NEW Orleans Loyola and Carnegie Tech will not meet in a post-season game, according to announcement today. The challenge sent to Carnegie Tech was unauthorized, according to Loyola officials. The Carnegie team has disbanded for the season.

PHIL Bridenbaugh is mentioned as one of the coach possibilities at Grove City, according to a story in a Pittsburgh newspaper. Charley Bowser will assist Coach Sutherland next year. As a result the Grovers are considering Day of Washington, Jordan, former Pitt captain, and Bridenbaugh of New Castle, the story declares.

BILL Carrigan has signed to manage the Red Sox for 1927. He has been out of baseball since 1916, when he managed the Red Sox to two consecutive world championships. To Boston fans Carrigan is the biggest man in baseball, as they regard him as the "great manager of the Lannin regime".

IT HAS been definitely decided that Washington High, W. P. I. A. League champions, will not accept the challenge of Gettysburg Academy for a post-season game. Gettysburg would have liked to have had the contest at Gettysburg. Few college and high school teams believe in post-season games, as it keeps their teams training too long.

WILLIAM G. Crowell, referee of the Army-Navy game, which ended 21-21, took exceptions today to report that the officials were lax and that Army's second touchdown was scored after Harbold had kicked a fumble by Ransford. He says that Eckersall and other officials told him the touchdown was legal and that there had been no kicking of the ball.

Lord Beaconsfield, England's famous novelist and statesman, is credited with having been the first to designate the Epsom Derby as the "Blue Ribbon of the Turf".

Christman Made Grid Captain

John M. Christman, better known to the grid fans of New Castle as "Jack", was the unanimous choice of the New Castle high school lettermen as captain for the 1927 football team. Twenty-one votes were cast in the election held on Monday afternoon.

The newly-elected grid leader is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Christman of 1303 Albert street. Christman has been a regular lineman at New Castle high for the past two years and is rated as one of the best defensive players on the squad this year.

Christman's choice was a popular one with the Red and Black warriors, and the student body as well. The new captain is not only a football player of the highest type but is also an honor student in school.

The election of Christman gives rise to the fact that New Castle will have a fighting leader next year and also a lineman who rates all-scholastic timber.

Lawther Has Hard Task Before Him

Must Develop Practically Entire New Basketball Team At Westminster

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Dec. 1—Having drilled his basketball squad daily for ten days Coach John Lawther at Westminster college is convinced that unless the unexpected happens, Westminster will have no more than a mediocre quintet during the season, which looms ahead. With Hetra the only man lost by graduation, prospects looked rosy before the fall term of school started but worries galore were heaped upon Lawther with the failure of Captain-elect McMeekin center; Ed Pahle, forward and Bill Kruse, forward and guard, to return to school.

Four letter-men are available. Howard Logan of Edgewood, in his fourth year of campaigning, is waging a hard fight to land either a forward or guard position. Harold Coles of Homestead, is again seeking a forward position. Howard Kelly of New Castle a guard, is again available as is James McQuiston of Cochranton, a guard. Despite their experience there is not one of the four certain of berths.

Lawther's task is plain. He must pick men from the group of new men who have reported to round out a combination. Of the new men, Connors, a tall, rangy chap who hails from New York City, looks best. He is after the center position but is having plenty of opposition. Tudor Lewis of Farrell, is looking good among the forward candidates. "Red" Crowell of Sharon, Ralph Thomas of Sharon and Sam Stewart of McKeesport are strong after forward positions.

At present Lawther is experimenting with a group of candidates everyone of whom towers six feet or over in height. These lads are Connors, Gamble, Crowell, Stewert, Logan and Ayers. Whether or not he expects to use such a combination after activities start is unknown. When used the combination passes well and are "quick death" under the baskets.

Helen Wills Not To Meet Suzanne

(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Helen Wills will not meet Suzanne Lenglen at tennis despite reports to that effect.

Dr. Sumner Hardy, president of the California Lawn Tennis association, declared Tuesday the association had not asked sanction for such a meeting and had no intention of doing so.

On top of Dr. Hardy's statement came the announcement of Dr. Wills, father of Helen, that he would not permit his daughter to play in any competition where gate receipts figured as benefiting the participants.

Carrigan Named Boston Manager

(International News Service)

BOSTON, Dec. 1.—Bill Carrigan, new Red Sox manager, started right in today to build up his ball club. His first move, after agreeing to sign a two-year contract, was to wire Heinie Wagner, star shortstop in the Carrigan days.

Manager Bill wants Heinie as chief scout. The old infielder was one of the strategists on the champion Sox in '15 and '16 and knows the Carrigan methods thoroughly.

Oosterbaan, left end for Michigan, is the most popular football player, according to the poll under way to select a real all-American eleven. Almost every ballot that comes into the News contains the name of the Michigan player, while Hess of Ohio State, a candidate for right guard honors, is the next popular player.

As yet it is too early to attempt to pick a first team as only two days of voting have prevailed. It is probable that there will be a big change in the standing as now compiled before the final votes roll into The News, December 4.

Football fans of New Castle and Lawrence county who have not cast their ballots are admonished to do so without delay. All they need do is to fill out the form being printed daily in The News. Players named for first team honors will get two points and those for second team positions will receive one point.

Here's the form, fans; shoot in the ballots. This contest is open to everybody. Letters can be mailed or delivered to Ed Fritz, sports editor of the New Castle News.

New Wilmington High Team Has Successful Year

Plucky College Town High Makes Good Record On Gridiron

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Dec. 1.—When New Wilmington High school and West Middlesex High school battled to a scoreless tie at West Middlesex Thanksgiving Day it marked the end of the grid season for the Blue and Gold eleven.

A schedule of nine games was played. Only two victories were annexed, while two battles resulted in scoreless ties. Despite the scarcity of triumphs, the season will be marked down as a success.

The team was coached by Wiggins, a graduate at Bethany College, where he starred as a lineman. He was handicapped this year by lack of veteran material. He was forced to fill vacancies with very light men, despite the fact that the schedule sent them against such heavy outfits as Sharon, Grove City and Greenville.

New Wilmington High school has a total enrollment of but 125, of which only 54 are boys. Eighteen of these reported for football. The first 14 players averaged 137 pounds.

New Wilmington, 0; West Middlesex, 0.

Totals: New Wilmington, 31; opponents, 53.

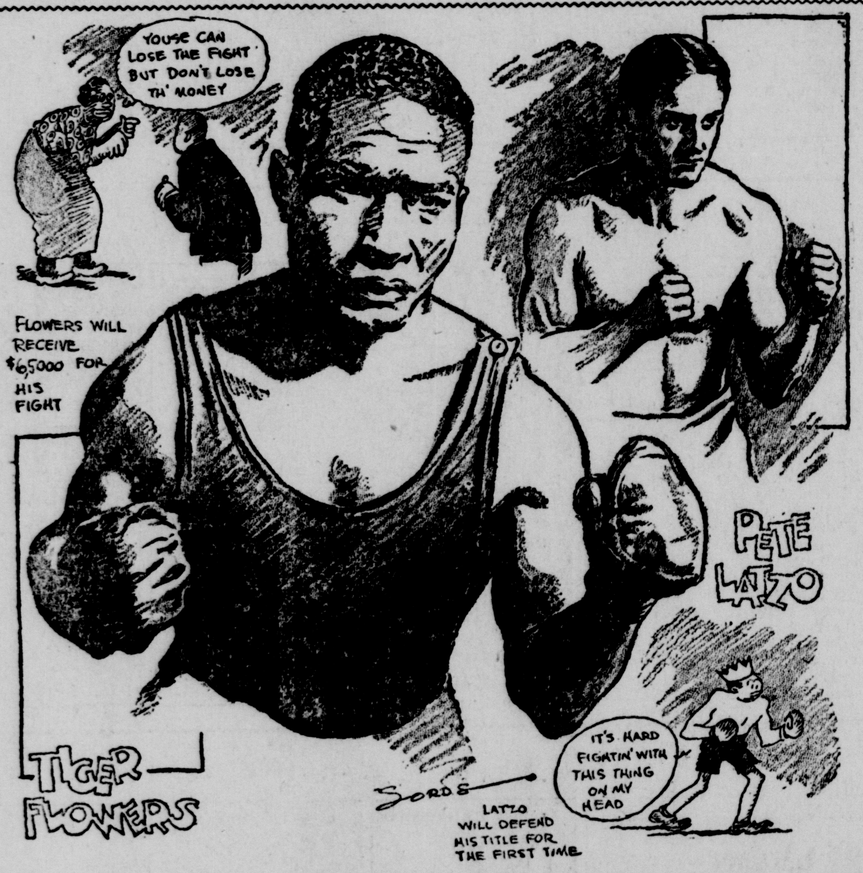

"Whitey" Herriott led the team in scoring with two touchdowns to his credit. Neal, Davis and William James each made one touchdown. Pete James scored one point after touchdown.

Seven of the 14 men who received letters are seniors and have played their last high school football. They are: Pete James, fullback; Matt Gilliland, tackle; "Jack" Lewis, end; Worrall, guard; "Ted" Anderson, guard; Hover, guard, and Ligo, end.

Others who received letters are: William James, quarterback; Neal, halfback; Cheers, halfback; Davis, end; Herriott, halfback; McCrumb, guard, and McConnell, tackle.

THEY DON'T CARE

Whether or Not 1926 Is Hoodoo Year for Champs

By NORMAN E. BROWN

This has been a bad year for ring champions.

Dempsey, Berlenbach, Greb, Walker, Kansas and Kaplan have passed out of the picture as kings for one reason or another—usually a good stiff kick from the left or right mitt of a better man.

But apparently the hoodoo worries two of the present monarchs not at all. For they are planning to risk their titles before the close of 1926.

Flowers meets Mickey Walker, once head of the welterweight class, in Chicago, Dec. 3. Latzo risks the title he won from Walker in a battle with one Joe Simonich, Dec. 8, in Newark, N. J.

Now ordinarily neither bout would worry followers of either king. But Tunney didn't worry Dempsey's friends. Rocky Kansas' friends thought he was too clever for Sammy Mandell. Few knew Harry Greb was within a few months of death—suffering from an injured head and blind in one eye when he faced Flowers early in the year.

So there may well be some conjecture as to the advisability of these kings climbing into the ring, even to be introduced, let alone subjected to a few wallops from an opponent.

Flowers, first negro to hold the world's middleweight title, will step out of the ring a rich man, no matter what happens to him. He has made a neat pile todate and the coming battle will net him $65,000. Walker's end, oddly enough, will be almost as much as he received for some of his bouts while wearing the welter diadem. Walker never was a colorful fighter. He draws the battle with Flowers because—well, frankly few want the Tiger's stuff.

Latzo will be defending his title for the first time. He has been kept out of the ring for months because of an injured hand. At one time it was feared the injury might spell the end of his fighting days. The coming bout will give him some idea of how strong the injured mitt is and how it will stand the gaff.

Nothing so very thrilling is expected in either of these bouts, as said before, but you never can tell in the fight game.

Lincoln Five To Meet Butler Team At "Y" Tonight

Fast Spaide Shirt Company Team To Oppose Locals— Game Starts At 8:30 O'clock

The Lincoln Five will again take to the hardwood court and tonight at 8:30 the boys will oppose the strong Spaide Shirt team of Butler.

The Spaide Shirt team established a wonderful record last year as industrial league champions of Butler county, and they have practically the same team this year. The Lincolns will be out to avenge their defeat of last week. The locals displayed a fine passing attack in the Bel-Ve-Dere game in the first half and led the visitors 12 to 3. In the second half the Frazier coached machine went to pieces.

Coach Frazier has drilled his charges intensively for the game tonight. The Lincolns are out to annex their first victory of the year.

New Grid Stars Get Attention

Among Players In Race For All-American Honors Are Some Coached By McLaughry

FOOTBALL POLL TO END DECEMBER 24

By ED. FRITZ.

One year ago Red Grange was the topic of conversation in every nook and corner, but Red, isn't redheaded at all, according to our informed friends, is losing some of his fame for the reason that new stars have been born.

There is no question but that Red was the ranking player, in publicity, if not in actual competition last season but with the demise of 1926 football, several new grid bulbs have commenced to shine.

This fact is quite evident if the poll to select a real All-American eleven is considered, as it is by 500 newspapers and thousands, yes, millions of fans throughout the United States.

Last year the fans didn't have a ghost of a show to pick a First team but Norman Brown originated the "You pick 'em" idea and the fans of the United States are hopping to the task.

Being a client of Norman Brown, Sports Editor of the Central Press association, The News got aboard the wagon as it generally does and today New Castle fans are voting for First and Second teams.

When the returns are received the writer gives two points to players named for first team berths and one point to players named for second team berths. The points are added and the most popular choices assigned to the first team.

Following the close of the polls December 24, the writer will present to fans the two teams they have selected. These teams, first and second, will be forwarded to Brown who will use it as—

New Castle's selection.

There's no hokum-pokum about this "election". So far we haven't had to hire any "roosters" to "get out the vote" though indications are that we'll have to have an organization to help with the statistics if they keep pouring in.

And the writer wants Mr. and Mrs. Fan, little Jimmie Fan and Lucy Fan to pen their selections. They've been reading football news for months and in sending in returns should be sure to assign players to their correct positions.

Returns as yet are incomplete. Only those mailed Monday and up to two p. m. Tuesday have been checked but on the face of those returns, we're presenting to you today the two teams—which will probably be changed by Wednesday.

First Team

Oosterbaan, Michigan	L.E.
Kevorkian, Navy	L.T.
Sturnhahn, Yale	L.G.
Beeringer, Notre Dame	C.
Hess, Ohio State	R.G.
Wickhorst, Navy	R.T.
Broada, Brown	R.E.
Friedman, Michigan	Q.B.
Kaer, Southern California	L.H.
Wilson, Army	R.H.
Joesting, Minnesota	F.B.

Second Team

Born, Army	L.E.
Nelson, Iowa	L.T.
Shively, Illinois	L.G.
Butler, Penn	C.
Lassman*, New York U.	R.G.
Baer, Michigan	R.T.
Hanson, Syracuse	R.E.
Harpster, Carnegie	Q.B.
Mishel, Brown	L.H.
Flanagan, Notre Dame	R.H.

*Lassman deadlocked with Stewart, Harvard;  Mishel tied with Gilbert, Michigan and M. Wilson, Lafayette.

Nor Mister and Mrs. Fan do not take this selection to be that the "poll is over". It is not. We compiled these statistics today to keep you posted as to "Who's Who" in the New Castle "election."

Read today's Sports page. Next take a pencil, fill in the blank form, printed elsewhere, place it in an envelope, then mail or deliver to The News. Your vote may change the race for positions.

Rickard May Match Dempsey And Tunney For Bout Next Year

Famous Promoter Says Former Champion Wants Chance To Regain Title

Discredits Stories That Recent Championship Go Was Set-Up

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor Internat'al News Service

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Breaking a silence that has been preserved these several months in the face of backstairs implication and innuendo, Tex Rickard today gave the lie to insistent stories that the Dempsey-Tunney fight had not been "level," in the patois of the back room; in effect, that it was a buck and wing.

Dan Morgan and Jimmy Johnston, famous managers, didn't agree with this cash and carry version of the fight, either and said so. It seems they just didn't see it that way and they have seen much in their time.

Rickard's Version

Rickard's version is based on other premises. His defense of Dempsey was that the ex-champion was too proud not to fight.

"I know Dempsey too well ever to believe that he would do anything but fight his head off to keep the title," Rickard declared. "He was too proud of it to let it get away from him without making the effort of a lifetime. He's no different from any other man who held a championship. I never knew a champion who wasn't too vain to throw his title away and the great few of them who realized the challenger was a better man dodged the issue as long as possible.

"Dempsey wasn't that type, however. He realized he wasn't right before the Tunney fight but never doubted that he would win.

"When it began to rain before the fight, I was badly worried and went to Dempsey's dressing room to tell him to be ready to start as soon as possible.

"'Never mind,' he said, 'It will be over in a few minutes anyhow.'

"Dempsey sincerely believed that he could march out to meet Tunney and bowl him right over. He had been told that he could win if he came out on roller skates and the idea that Tunney was a sap never left him until he was hit on the jaw in the first round. Then it was too late.

Greatly Surprised

"As for me, I wasn't greatly surprised that Tunney was able to win. I felt all along that he was the logical man for the spot. If I hadn't felt that way, I wouldn't have had him in there. That's only sound business policy. No man, least of all promoters can afford to give the public what is doesn't want.

"Here's another thing, I could bring the Dempsey-Tunney bout back again next summer without the slightest 'build-up'. There's no doubt in my mind that Dempsey stands out as the public's choice as first challenger. Yet neither of us are in favor of this plan. I want him to meet one or two good men on his way back. He wants to prove himself that he can come back before challenging Tunney. He wouldn't feel that way if the fight had been phoney, would he?"

To the writer, it would seem that it is about time the case goes to the jury. A show-down either one way or the other, is simple justice to all concerned, including the 127,000 odd who paid and paid at Philadelphia.

Snavely May Be Bucknell Coach, Moran Is Through

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 1.—Post season football gossips today hear reports that Charlie Moran, head coach of Bucknell university, Lewisburg, Pa., was due to step out of the picture before the 1927 season and that Carl Snavely, coach of the Bellefonte, Pa., Academy team, will succeed Moran at the helm of Bucknell athletics.

The indifferent success of the Bucknell eleven the past season, coupled with the shining record displayed by the academy team gave rise to many of the rumors.

It was reported that the Bucknell athletic council met at Harrisburg on Saturday and chose Snavely, former Kiski mentor, to coach the Bisons next season.

Governor Fishers' Daughter To Wed

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The engagement of Miss Mary Miller Fisher, only daughter of Governor-Elect John S. Fisher of Pennsylvania to Henry Tatnall Brown, Jr., of Moorestown, N. J. has been announced here.

The announcement was made by the governor-elect last night at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon F. Taylor of Indiana, Pa.,

Miss Fisher is a graduate of Goucher college, Baltimore, and since the death of her mother has been in charge of the governor-elect's household at Indiana.

Ramblers Top Regals 28-20

The Ramblers opened their season on Tuesday night at the Rose avenue gym floor by defeating the Regals, 28 to 20, in a fast battle.

Taking an early lead, the Ramblers were never headed throughout the game. McNickle led the scoring with five markers, Blight played a good game at guard, holding his man scoreless. H. Levine and Winnick were the best bets for the Regals.

The line-up:

Ramblers—26		Regals—20
McNickle	F.	Solomon
F. Thomas	F.	J. Ginsburg
Lewis	C.	H. Levine
J. Thomas	G.	Winnick
Blight	G.	M. Levine

Substitutions: Johns for J. Thomas, Bluedorn for F. Thomas.

Field goals: McNickle, 5; Blight, Lewis, H. Levine, 3; M. Levine, Winnick, 2; F. Thomas, Bluedorn, Johns, Solomon, 1.

Referee: Jim Douglas.

Scorer—Love.

Tigers Lonesome At San Antonio

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Dec. 1.—It looks now as if the Tigers would be a rather lonesome body of athletes when they go to San Antonio next spring for training. When the Tiger management selected that spot for the spring workouts it was believed that the St. Louis Cardinals, champions of the world, would train in San Antonio also and it was planned that the two teams would meet in a series of exhibition games.

Now it develops that the Cards are going to join the Florida colony of major league clubs.

However, the Tigers will have plenty of opportunity to play exhibitions against the strong Texas league teams.

It was the first year that Ty Cobb managed the Detroit team that it trained in San Antonio. It found the climate favorable but perhaps a bit too hot. When the players returned to the April climate of the American league they suffered somewhat from the cold, having been training in mid-summer heat for seven weeks.

Stanage Named Pirate Coach

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 1.—Oscar H. Stanage, former catcher of the Detroit Tigers, and Jewel Ens, for many years connected with the Pittsburgh Pirates, today held contracts as aides to Donie Bush, newly appointed manager of the Pirates.

Stanage joins the Pittsburgh team as coach and general assistant to Bush, and Ens will serve as trainer and assistant coach.

Flies Half Million Miles; British Ace Visiting In America

By GEORGE H. MANNING.
(Washington Correspondent of The News.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—Flying through a sandstorm over the Nile, so thick at 12,000 feet altitude that he could not tell which was the desert and which was the sky, which was up and which was down; across 2,000 miles of South Africa, where it would have been impossible to land his airplane without a crash; through a blinding rainstorm in a narrow pass in the Taurus mountains, with the bottom of the ravine 5,000 feet below and the summits of the mountains in the clouds 5,000 feet above; through snow storms above the Black Forest; through the heart of a monsoon in the Indian ocean, Sir Alan Cobham, world's ace civilian aviator has piloted his plane half a million miles in the last decade without a serious accident. He has arrived for a visit in the United States.

Cairo to Cape Town 17,000 miles.

London to Port Darwin, Australia, 28,000 miles, without engine trouble in 78 days, and 320 actual flying hours.

And his total record of more than 500,000 miles of flying in ten years without a serious accident.

Pennsylvania Hens Making Egg Records

One Has Produced Nine And One-Half Times Her Own Weight

STATE COLLEGE, Dec. 1.—Hens in the Pennsylvania State College experiment station poultry flock here are out to break as many egg-laying marks as they can in this year of smashed athletic records and new speed goals, E. W. Callenbach of the poultry department, stated today.

A white leghorn and a barred plymouth rock have passed the mark established a few months ago by E-640, the barred plymouth rock biddy. She laid 279 eggs in a year. Now E-624, another barred plymouth rock, has finished her year with 289 eggs and E-216, a white leghorn, has topped that mark by seven eggs. So 296 eggs in one year, which the college poultrymen admit just about allows a hen her Sundays and a few other holidays off during the year, constitute the new goal which future record-breaking egg producers will try to surmount.

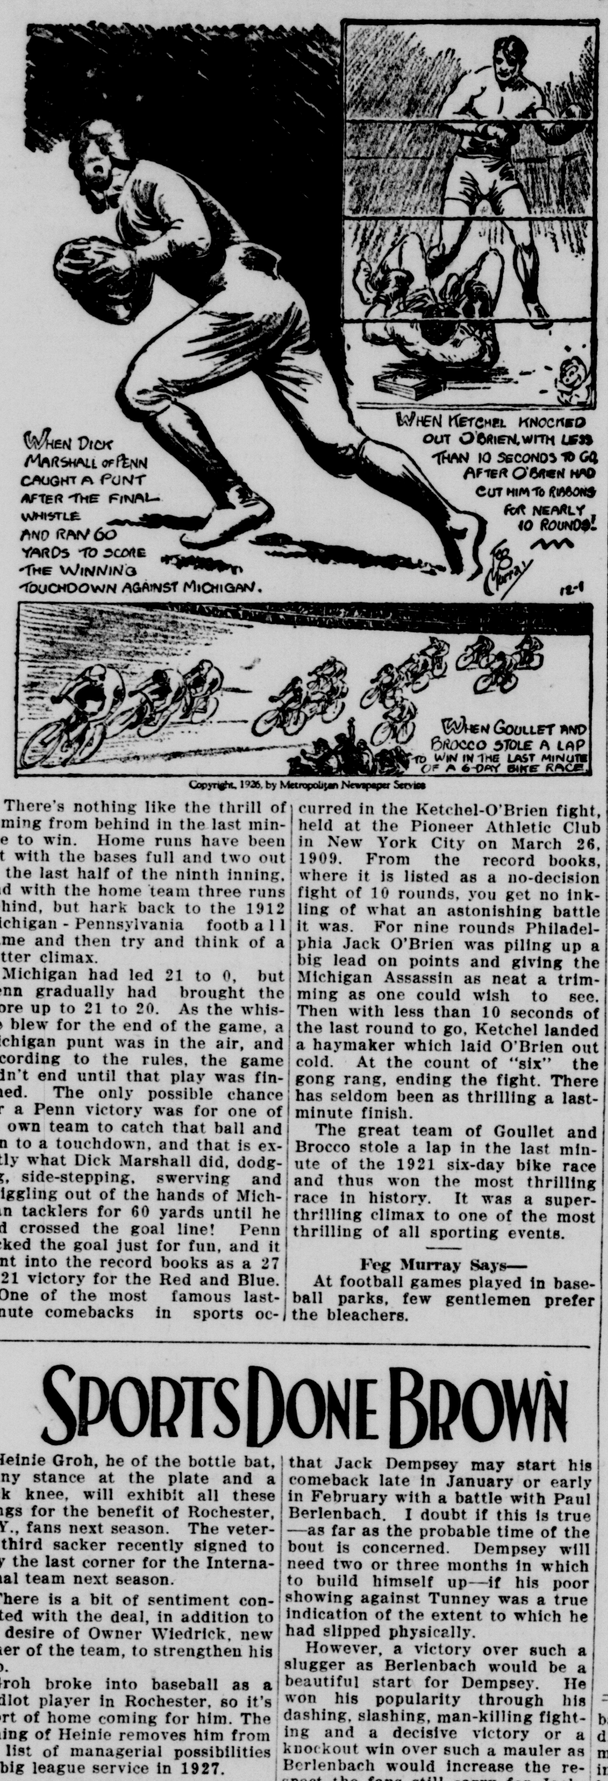

E-216, according to Callenbach, is a 3½-pound hen and she lays eggs which weigh 21 ounces to the dozen. A little division and multiplication shows that the eggs she laid during the year total nine and one-half times her own weight.

E-624 is a 7-pound hen and her eggs weigh 26 ounces to the dozen, or a total of 45 pounds for the year, over six times her weight.

Trapshooting has been taken up in earnest by women members of the fashionable Nassau Country Club at Glen Cove, L. I., and a series of tournaments for the women shots will be held this winter.

Stud books, in connection with the breeding of race horses, are said to have originated in the mind of Joseph Butler, who about 150 years ago had charge of several famous racing stables in England.

Thrilling Finishes — By Feg Murray

Copyright, 1926, by Metropolitan Newspaper Service

There's nothing like the thrill of coming from behind in the last minute to win. Home runs have been hit with the bases full and two out in the last half of the ninth inning, and with the home team three runs behind, but hark back to the 1912 Michigan - Pennsylvania football game and then try and think of a better climax.

Michigan had led 21 to 0, but Penn gradually had brought the score up to 21 to 20. As the whistle blew for the end of the game, a Michigan punt was in the air, and according to the rules, the game didn't end until that play was finished. The only possible chance for a Penn victory was for one of its own team to catch that ball and run to a touchdown, and that is exactly what Dick Marshall did, dodging, side-stepping, swerving and wriggling out of the hands of Michigan tacklers for 60 yards until he had crossed the goal line! Penn kicked the goal just for fun, and it went into the record books as a 27 to 21 victory for the Red and Blue.

One of the most famous last-minute comebacks in sports occurred in the Ketchel-O'Brien fight, held at the Pioneer Athletic Club in New York City on March 26, 1909. From the record books, where it is listed as a no-decision fight of 10 rounds, you get no inkling of what an astonishing battle it was. For nine rounds Philadelphia Jack O'Brien was piling up a big lead on points and giving the Michigan Assassin as neat a trimming as one could wish to see. Then with less than 10 seconds of the last round to go, Ketchel landed a haymaker which laid O'Brien out cold. At the count of "six" the gong rang, ending the fight. There has seldom been as thrilling a last-minute finish.

The great team of Goullet and Brocco stole a lap in the last minute of the 1921 six-day bike race and thus won the most thrilling race in history. It was a super-thrilling climax to one of the most thrilling of all sporting events.

Feg Murray Says—

At football games played in baseball parks, few gentlemen prefer the bleachers.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

Heinie Groh, he of the bottle bat, funny stance at the plate and a trick knee, will exhibit all these things for the benefit of Rochester, N. Y., fans next season. The veteran third sacker recently signed to play the last corner for the International team next season.

There is a bit of sentiment connected with the deal, in addition to the desire of Owner Wiedrick, new owner of the team, to strengthen his club.

Groh broke into baseball as a sandlot player in Rochester, so it's a sort of home coming for him. The signing of Heinie removes him from the list of managerial possibilities for big league service in 1927.

Comes word from the east now that Jack Dempsey may start his comeback late in January or early in February with a battle with Paul Berlenbach. I doubt if this is true—as far as the probable time of the bout is concerned. Dempsey will need two or three months in which to build himself up—if his poor showing against Tunney was a true indication of the extent to which he had slipped physically.

However, a victory over such a slugger as Berlenbach would be a beautiful start for Dempsey. He won his popularity through his dashing, slashing, man-killing fighting and a decisive victory or a knockout win over such a mauler as Berlenbach would increase the respect the fans still carry for Jack, although he be an "ex".

ALL-AMERICAN GRID CANDIDATES

By NORMAN E. BROWN.

Purdue University which produced one of the strongest teams in its history this season, presents Halfback "Cotton" Wilcox. His dashing leadership and all around play helped the "Boilermakers" to run up 13 points against the powerful Navy eleven. Michigan later failed to score a point against the service team although recognized as tied with Northwestern for the Western College Conference title.

Wilcox also led the attack which humbled Stagg's Chicago eleven, later to be made the doormat of the conference for the season.

The line plunging and scoring record for Joesting, Minnesota fullback, drew most of the attention directed to that team during the meteoric rise to threaten Michigan in the final game. But Bob Peplaw halfback and one of Joesting's running mates was a brilliant factor in the team's success.

Blast And Fire Ruins Oil Works At Warren, Penna.

(International News Service)

WARREN, Pa., Dec. 1.—An explosion followed by fire did $20,000 damage to the Tiona plant of the South Penn Oil company her early today. One employe was burned in making his escape from the burning building.

Two storage tanks of gasoline were destroyed by fire which followed the explosion of several hundred bottles of condensed gas.

Warren and Sheffield fire companies answered an emergency alarm and succeeded in confining the blaze to the South Penn plant.

The Road Through Maryland.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

© McClure Newspaper Syndicate

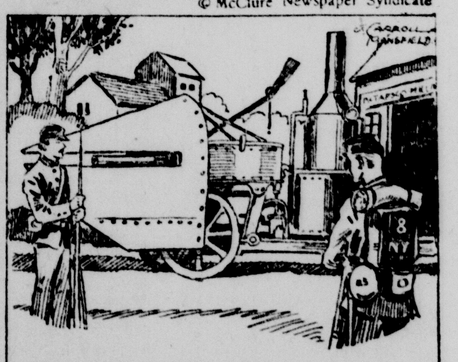

IN THE EARLY DAYS OF '61, SECESSIONISTS OF MARYLAND TORE UP THE RAILROADS AND BURNED BRIDGES TO PREVENT NORTHERN MILITIA REACHING WASHINGTON. WHILE SOLDIERS AND WORKMEN LABORED TO REPAIR THE DIRECT LINE, UNION TROOPS WERE CARRIED TO ANNAPOLIS BY WATER AND THENCE BY RAIL TO THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

THE COUNTRY BETWEEN ANNAPOLIS AND WASHINGTON WAS MADE THE "DEPARTMENT OF ANNAPOLIS" WITH GEN. BENJAMIN BUTLER IN COMMAND. THE U. S. NAVAL ACADEMY WAS CONVERTED INTO A GREAT MILITARY DEPOT AND ITS CORPS OF MIDSHIPMEN REMOVED TO NEWPORT, R. I., FOR THE DURATION OF THE WAR.

BUTLER'S TASK WAS TO MAINTAIN AN OPEN ROAD TO WASHINGTON AND TO THIS END HE PLANTED BATTERIES AT POINTS ALONG THE RAILROAD. ON MAY 5, 1861, BUTLER SEIZED AND FORTIFIED THE VIADUCT AND STATION AT RELAY HOUSE, THE JUNCTION OF THE RAILWAYS LEADING TO WASHINGTON AND HARPER'S FERRY.

IN THE SAME MONTH, BUTLER'S TROOPS CAPTURED, AT ELLICOTT'S MILLS, THE FAMOUS WINANS STEAM GUN, INVENTED BY DICKINSON, WHICH WAS EXPECTED TO REVOLUTIONIZE THE ART OF WARFARE.

The National Bank of Lawrence County at New Castle, Pennsylvania, and The First National Bank of New Castle, Pennsylvania, acting pursuant to resolutions of their respective Boards of Directors, have entered into an agreement to consolidate said associations under the name of "First National Bank of Lawrence County at New Castle", subject to the ratification and confirmation thereof by the shareholders of each association owning at least two-thirds of the outstanding capital stock thereof, and subject to the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States. The Board of Directors of The National Bank of Lawrence County at New Castle, Pennsylvania, has called, and does hereby call, a special meeting of the shareholders of the said Bank to be held at its banking house at No. 101 East Washington Street, New Castle, Pennsylvania, on the 15th day of December, 1926, at 3 o'clock P. M., for the following purposes:

1. To vote for or against the ratification and confirmation of the said agreement of consolidation.

2. To vote for or against the ratification and confirmation of the action of the Board of Directors providing for the transfer to a Pennsylvania corporation to be incorporated of such assets of The National Bank of Lawrence County at New Castle, Pennsylvania, as are not considered desirable to carry into the consolidation or as shall not be necessary to make up the contribution of the said Bank to the capital, surplus, and undivided profits of the consolidated bank, in exchange for all of the capital stock of the proposed Pennsylvania corporation which will be distributed pro rata to the shareholders of The National Bank of Lawrence County at New Castle, Pennsylvania.

3. To vote for or against the ratification and confirmation of all other actions taken and agreements made by the Board of Directors of The National Bank of Lawrence County at New Castle, Pennsylvania, in contemplation of, or in connection with, the said consolidation and transfer of assets.

4. To authorize the directors and officers of The National Bank of Lawrence County at New Castle, Pennsylvania, to do all things by them deemed necessary or advisable to carry out the said consolidation and transfer of assets.

5. To transact such other business germane to the foregoing purposes as may be brought before the meeting.

By order of the Board of Directors.

JOHN ELDER, JR.,
Cashier.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—All sections of the stock market participated in a moderate rally in prices at the beginning of trading today. The high-priced industrial speculative leaders like Baldwin, steel and commercial solvents advanced 2 to 5 points in the first hour; Texas Land Trust jumped an additional 30 points; Chesapeake and Ohio, at the head of the rails, sold up 3 points to 161 and Brooklyn Union Gas led a move in the utilities.

An over-crowded short position in some of the industrial and specialty stocks competed for the offering of stocks, according to bullish quarters.

Good leadership was provided by the active industrials, including U. S. Steel, Allied Chemical, General Motors, Baldwin and Remington Typewriter. Tobacco stocks held their recent gains, Schulte making a further advance to above 48, on reports that the directors would hereafter pay the regular dividends in cash instead of stock.

Blizzard Strikes Middle West And Temperature Drops

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—The middle west was struck today by the forerunner of the blizzard and cold wave which has blanketed northern Michigan and Wisconsin.

A biting northerly wind, carrying with it light snow, drove the mercury down at the rate of two degrees an hour from midnight when the thermometer registered 41. Forecast for tonight was a probable minimum of 15, which will be the lowest this year.

Hundreds of deer hunters and trappers were reported snowbound with roads and trails covered by five-foot drifts in upper Michigan.

Governor-elect Greene and a party of friends were reported snowbound in a hunting lodge near Marquette. James Oliver Curwood, the novelist, was in similar difficulties at his camp 60 miles from Calumet.

Coast guards on Lake Superior watched for lake vessels, fearing wrecks because of the high winds.

DR. J. W. CLAUDY SPEAKS IN WARD

Dr. Claudy Speaks In Presbyterian Church—Other News Notes Of Seventh Ward

Dr. J. W. Claudy of Pittsburgh, Pa., was present in the Mahoning Presbyterian church, Tuesday evening and gave a most interesting talk of his work among prisoners and convicts in prisons and penitentiaries. His theme was "Long Shadows."

This lecture was the first on the program being presented in this church. The lecture course is being presented under the Board of Education under the Department of Moral Welfare. The Men's Brotherhood of the local church is in charge of these lectures.

In dealing with his subject, Dr. Claudy told of many facts that were interesting to his audience concerning prisons and prisoners. Discussing crimes of many kinds and criminals, the non-conviction of criminals and evasion of laws, of the hundreds and thousands of all kinds of criminals behind the bars and those who get off as is termed, "scott free." He also spoke of and compared the ways of dealing with prisoners in this country and England. The personality of prisoners and their life after leaving. Taking up the lack of education and educational need of every criminal institute. Religious education was also discussed by Dr. Claudy.

He also spoke of the punishment and treatment of prisoners. Treating prisoners as human beings and treating them, "rough". Of the effect of on the criminal. Last he discussed more fully the denominations of churches doing work in prisons and the relation of the church to criminals, and of thinking of the criminals in prisons not as outcasts but as human beings.

The second lecture of this lecture course will be in the church Monday evening, December 20. Professor J. H. Dickason will be the speaker.

O. R. C. LODGE

The Ladies Auxiliary to Order of Railroad Conductors will have their meeting at 1:30, Thursday afternoon. This is one half hour earlier than usual on account of the card party which will be held following the business meeting.

OPPORTUNITY CIRCLE

The regular monthly meeting of the Opportunity Circle of the Mahoning Presbyterian church will be held in the church parlor at 2:30, Friday afternoon. The program for this meeting is as follows. Devotionals in charge of Mrs. W. F. McClurg. The topic, "Syria and Persia," will be in charge of Mrs. H. V. Brown, Mrs. M. L. Wallace, Mrs. C. B. Farver. The hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. W. H. Leicht, Mrs. Gertrude Marshall, Mrs. A. A. Maud, and Mrs. W. S. Caskey.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Samuel C. Rohrer of North Cedar street entertained 16 little guests in her home Saturday afternoon in honor of the fourth birthday of her daughter, Myrtle Irene. The hours were from 2 to 5 and were spent in music and games. The guest of honor was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Pink and green tones were carried out in the dainty refreshments served by Mrs. Rohrer assisted by Frances Hyde.

Guests present included, Jerrie Flick, Marjorie Kellogge, Olive Sypher, Betty Woods, Della Gallagher, Dorothy Stevens, Ione Farver, Virginia Treadwell, Ruth Hayes, Ray Denny, Billy Stevens, Billy Treadwell, Betty Lou Rohrer and the honor guest Myrtle Irene Rohrer.

DINNER PARTY

Mrs. M. C. Adams, Mrs. R. C. Cather and Mrs. David Bender were associate hostesses to the members of the Girls Kensington at a six o'clock dinner in the former's home on Madison avenue, Tuesday evening. The dinner table was attractively decorated with tall yellow tapers and baby mums. Following the dinner an enjoyable evening was spent with fancy work, and social chat.

In two weeks at the home of Mrs. Raymond Horchlor on West Clayton street the members of the club will have a tureen dinner and their annual Christmas party and exchange of gifts.

AT WILLIARD, O.

Mrs. W. G. McGrath and daughter Virginia of Newell avenue visited on Sunday with relatives at Williard, O.

MAHONING BOOK CLUB

Mrs. Walter Harlan of Lincoln avenue will receive the members of the Mahoning Book Club in her home, Thursday afternoon.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Swisher of the Mt. Jackson road, Mrs. H. L. Camblin of Beaver street and Harold Swisher of North Cedar street attended the funeral of a relative at West Middlesex, Pa.

MOTHER DIES

Mr. and Mrs. Waid Thompson of West Madison avenue left Tuesday morning for Cleveland, O., where they had been called by the death of the former's mother, Mrs. Ella Thompson, whose death occurred early Tuesday morning.

TEACHERS ILL

Four substitute teachers were teaching at Mahoning school on Monday and Tuesday on account of regular teachers being ill. On Tuesday teachers absent on account of illness were, Miss Margaret Ruthrauff, Miss Anna Benson, Miss Rittenhouse and V. Cresswell.

REVIVAL SERVICES

Increasing interest is being shown in the evangelistic services being conducted in the Mahoning M. E. church. The auditorium was filled again on Tuesday evening and Rev. Harry Maitland preached on "Prayer". Completing the subject he discussed on Monday evening. Under this subject he took up four distinctive points. Failure to pray at the will of God, selfishness, lack of faith, lack of obedience was the last phase.

These revivals started Sunday evening and interest seems to increase each night. A junior choir is an added feature to the services in addition to the regular large chorus choir.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. J. A. Beard of Orchard street returned Sunday evening from Champaign, Ill., where she had been for more than two weeks on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Clara Crump. Mrs. Beard states that her mother is not much better.

CHOIR PRACTICE

Choir practice will be held in the Mahoning Presbyterian church, on Thursday evening at 7:30.

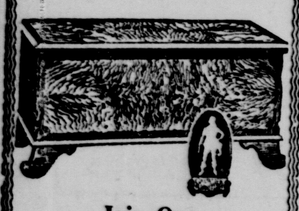

Evidently there is something in this talk about butter and egg men being good spenders. In Chicago the butter and egg men are spending $3,500,000 for a new building to serve as a general headquarters for their business.

As a general rule, the expression "—and I don't mean maybe" is used by gentlemen who don't mean much of anything.

Urges Legion Men To Join On To Paris Saving Club Now

A nation-wide appeal for members of the American Legion who plan to make the trip to Paris in 1927 to join an "On to Paris" saving club if they have not already done so was made today by Bowman Elder of Indianapolis, Ind., national chairman of the France convention committee.

There are many Legionnaires who already have sufficient money for the Paris trip, but there are others who will be disappointed when the sailing time comes if they do not at once start savings. Mr. Elded said in a communication to John D. Kennedy of New Castle. Employers are aiding the back-to-France movement of Legionnaires by granting extended vacation time in 1927 for employes who want to go, Mr. Elder said.

Reservations received by the France convention committee during the first week indicate that those going to Paris will be representative of all divisions that went to France and trained on this side but did not get across. In the first batch of reservations received at national headuqarters of the Legion were one from General John J. Pershing, wartime commander of the A. E. F., and Howard P. Savage, national commander of the American Legion. Reservations are being received from men who served as "buck" privates in the first A. E. F. as well as the one from the highest ranking officer, Mr. Elder announced.

Spends $100,000 For County Roads

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., Dec. 1.—Significant of the interest that Mercer county commissioners are taking in the road building program in Mercer county conducted by the supervisors in the 32 county townships is the statement today at the office of these officials that during 1926 the sum of $100,000 was spent by them.

The sum stated as expended went into the construction of ash, slag, gravel roads that come within the bracket of the county secondary road program. It is reported that over 40 miles of this type of road was constructed or is now being completed. This sum was expended in addition to a quarter-milloin that the state and county spent on the primary road program of six miles in the county. The roads now in use and those built this year total in mileage sufficient to compare very favorably with any county in Pennsylvania.

AUDITORIUM TO BE DEDICATED SUNDAY

YOUNGSTODN, O., Dec. 1.—The new Stambaugh Memorial auditorium representing an investment of $1,500,000 will be formally dedicated Sunday afternoon. It is the gift to Youngstown of Henry H. Stambaugh, wealthy steelmaker and for mauy years chairman of the Brier Hill Steel company.

Yet a lot of people who think Chicago unsafe go rabbit hunting with amateurs.

Reports On Drive Come In Slowly

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., Dec. 1.—Red Cross reports are slow arriving here at headquarters, states Mrs. J. W. Ayers, who is chairman of the Mercer county drive this fall.

This is due to the different periods of time selected by the chairmen in the various towns for drives. The drive started officially on November 11. Its date of closing is left to the chairmen. Amounts that have been received as yet are only partial of the soliciting of the seven districts into which the county is divided. Mercer reports the collection of $470 which is an approximate amount of the money collected last year.

The chairman urges the immediate completion of the territory and return of reports to her office here.
